Signs of the times

As we walked down the corridors of MCHS, many signs of the times were visible.

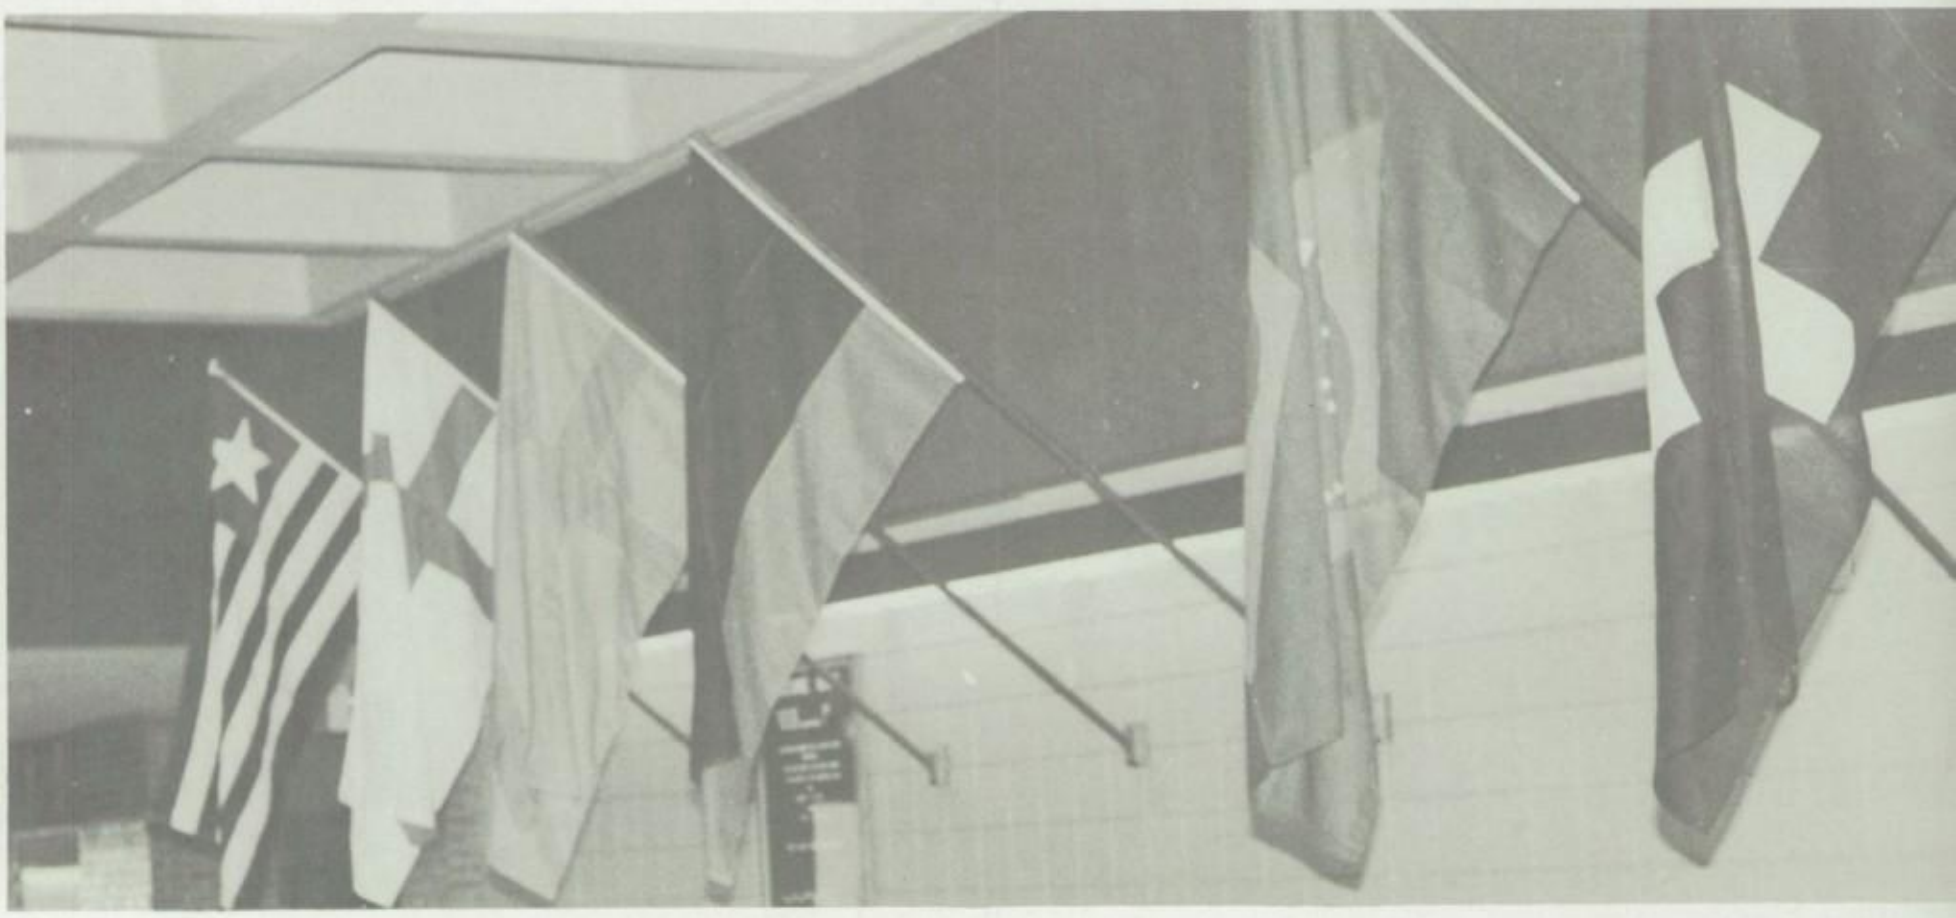
Newly hung flags not only display a brilliant array of color, they also symbolize our hospitality towards the foreign students of the past, present, and future. The flags suggest one of the many efforts by the student council to make the year significant.

Another sign of 1981 was the presidential election which gave many students a chance to exercise their newly attained right to vote. The voting privilege gave some students a feeling of pride, knowing they had an influence in the results of the election.

The instrumental music department was sad when they heard that Mr. Dean, the previous band director, was to take a position at UNI, but Mr. Lettow and his directing techniques presented him with great respect. Mr. Lettow has directed the band in nothing but a positive way. His enthusiasm for music was obvious when the band performed during football halftimes. Although the drill team was missed during the halftime performances, the guidons along with their colorful flags did an excellent job of entertaining the spirited football crowd.

It's impossible to restate all the occurrences throughout the year, because each and every event was significant in the illustration of 1981.

These all were "Signs of the times."



WHAT SO PROUDLY WE HAIL- International flags are displayed in the commons.

PLAYING POLITICS-Cathy Romans, Bob Thoms, Rick Sullivan and Lorinda Grupp volunteered time to the Republican party.

MARCH ON- Dawn Espinosa marches with the band during halftime.

WATCH CLOSELY NOW- Band members seem to be looking in all directions during a Mohawk home game.

Mohawks get a head start

Although school didn't get started until August twenty-seventh, many students spent the last few weeks of their summer preparing for the oncoming school year.

For the students who greatly anticipated school, summer practices were not a major disturbance to the closing summer. Others found it hard to block out visions of summer recreation.

Both band and most fall athletic teams began preparing during the last few weeks prior to the opening of school.

Teachers also spent part of the summer getting ready for fall. They participated in workshops, planned lessons and did a little reviewing for class.

All these preparations for 1980-81 enabled the year to start out on a positive note. The general attitude was one of great enthusiasm, from reminiscing the summer with good friends to attentive listening in classrooms.

The school year started and now has ended.

Many memories linger on . . .

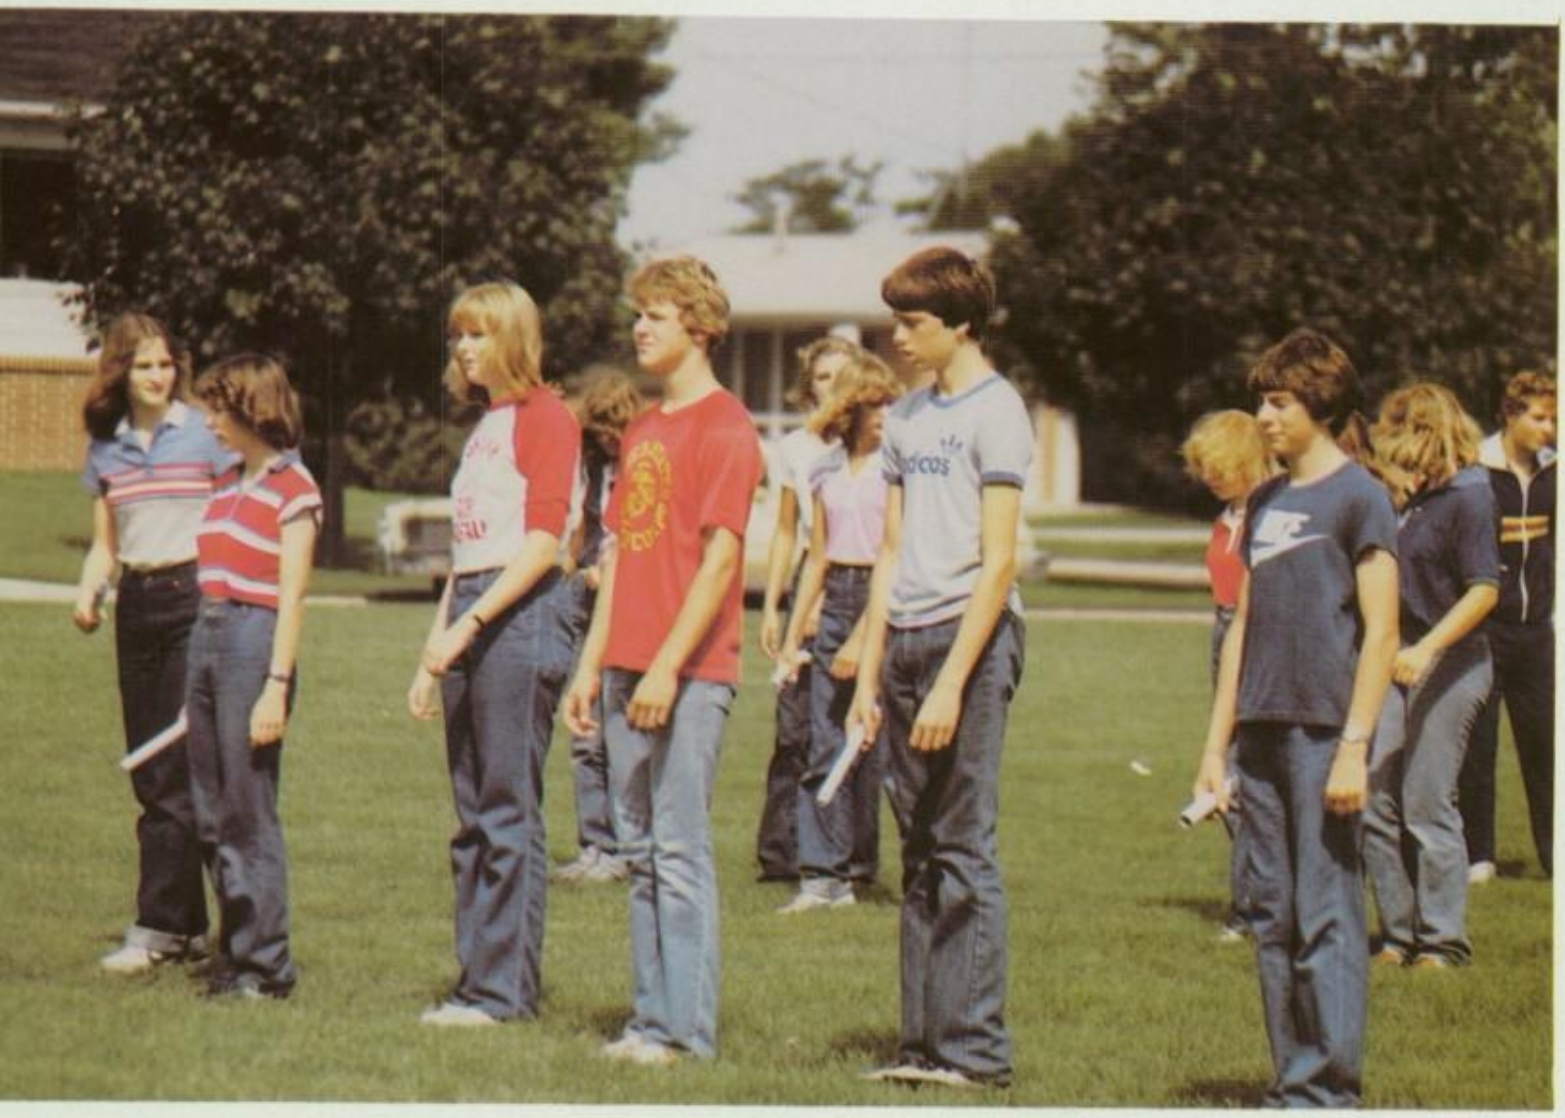
ALL SET-Tom Austin is all set for the start of school after paying his School fees.

HEY, IT'S SUMMER-Ms. Hawbaker defends her relaxed attire, while Mr. Long obviously has nothing to talk about.

ONE LAST TIME-Glenda Magner fills out a high school registration card for her last time.

LOOKING AHEAD-Kent Porter and Larry Rumley along with the rest of the football team get prepared for the oncoming season.

"I'M SURE"-Becky Hesse and Devon Roberts find Liesa Naylon's summer experiences hard to believe.



LETTOW'S LITTLE LINE-Sophomores were taught how to march "Mohawk style" during summer practices.

Mohawks hit the trails

Getting ready at dawn for ten days, two groups of students got away from it all this summer. They paddled and hiked their ways through places untouched by man.

One group headed north to the woods to roam the waters in Canada, while the other group went west to the mountains to test their endurance in Colorado.

Many canoers will look back on their experiences and remember the day spent at the falls. Leaving camp early that morning, they paddled to their destination. After tipping over canoes and having water fights, they decided to conquer the falls. The canoers got up their courage and everyone of them jumped off the high cliffs. Producing a mass of spray of water, they couldn't get enough. Finally by the day's end, they returned to camp and talked about their adventures.

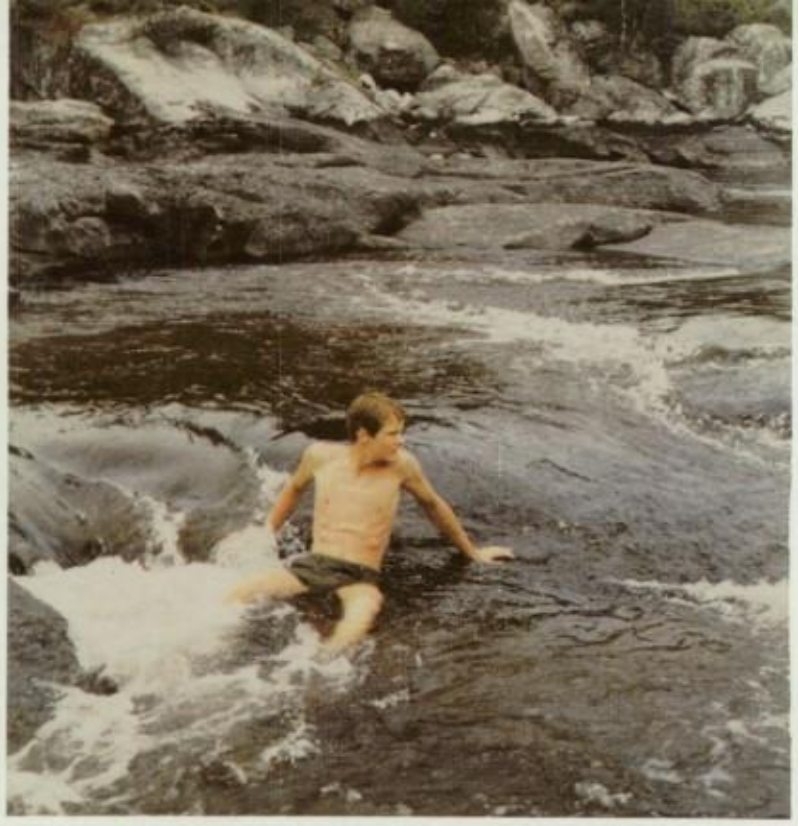
The backpackers also had many fun times during their trip. They will remember sitting on top of a pass and sledding down its snowy slopes. But mostly they'll remember just making it through the two weeks.

The canoers and backpackers learned a lot about survival, but mostly about themselves. They learned to get along with others, while they found their limits and capabilities. Although they complained, they would never regret it.

WATER BREAK-Cindy Bancroft returns with water for the thirsty backpackers after a long hike.

DOUBLE THE PLEASURE-The peaks of two mountains frame the sky, as they reach for the clouds.

OUR FEARLESS LEADERS-Mr. Balk, Mr. Coe, Miss Hawbaker, Dr. Martin, Miss Phillips, and Mr. Bye survive the backpacking trip without much stress.



TIME TO COOL OFF-While something catches his attention, John Klesath relaxes in the water.

FISHY BUSINESS-Ann Mitchell drops a line, hoping to catch a fish.

EARLY START-Brent Olsen gets a helping hand from Alice Phillips, as he prepares to hit the trails.

STROKE ... STROKE ...-Canoers head out for another long day of paddling during their adventures in Canada.

SOLITUDE-Enjoying the serenity of the mountains, Ted Wulfekuhler ponders his adventures during the backpacking trip.

'Another one bites the dust'

Homecoming 1980 could not have had a more appropriate theme than, "Another One Bites the Dust." On Friday, October, tenth, the Mohawk team along with its fans watched West Waterloo do just that, as they lost to the Mohawks, 15-14.

The Mohawk spirit was a great influence on the defeat of the Wahawks. The week prior to the Mohawk-Wahawk battle was designated spirit week. Spirit week was comprised of Wake-Up to Spirit Day, Western Day, Hat Day Sweat Day, and, of course, Friday was Black and Red Day. Coronation of the 1980 Homecoming Queen was also held during this week. On Thursday, Jodie May had the honor of being crowned Queen. Ann Heiny, Heidi Carlson, Laurie Pross, Kris Dorenkamp, Margie McCabe and Janice Dahl were among the Queen's court.

Following the coronation ceremony was the first Homecoming parade through downtown. All three classes were represented in the parade by class floats. The Junior Class float received first place in the float contest.

As the sky began to darken Thursday, many Mohawks started to gather at the Roosevelt stadium for the annual bonfire. The pep was intense as the newly crowned Queen ignited the bonfire.

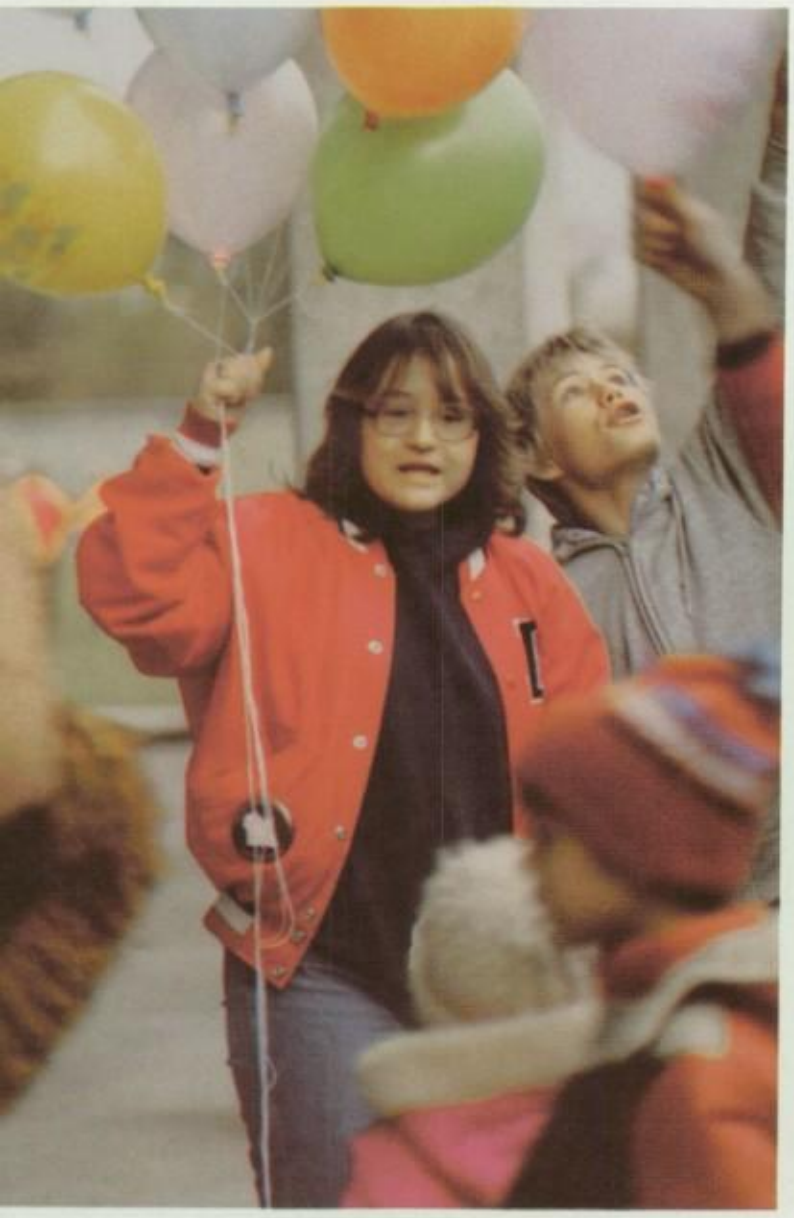
The highlight of the week was the football game and of course the dance, at which the Litterer Brothers performed.

In most Mohawk eyes, the 1980 Homecoming week was a success.

MOHAWK ROYALTY-Queen, Jodie May poses with her court comprised of Ann Heiny, Janice Dahl, Heidi Carlson, Kris Dorenkamp, Margie McCabe and Laurie Pross.

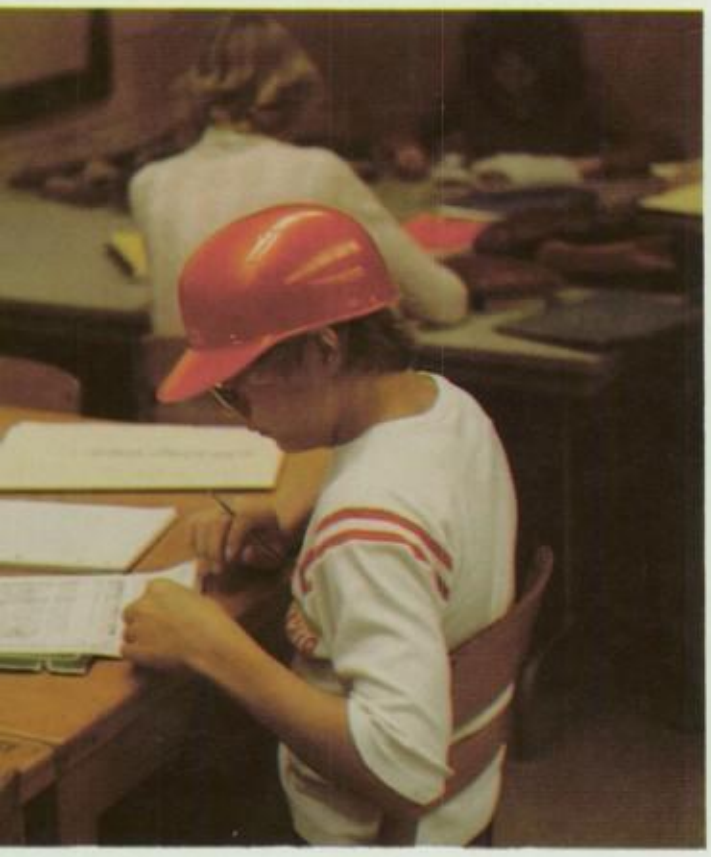
A WORD FROM OUR SPONSOR-Newly crowned Queen, Jodie May, expresses her thanks to the student body.

"HOWDY PARTNER"- Seniors mount the Class of '81 float which carried the theme of "HOW THE WEST WAS WON"

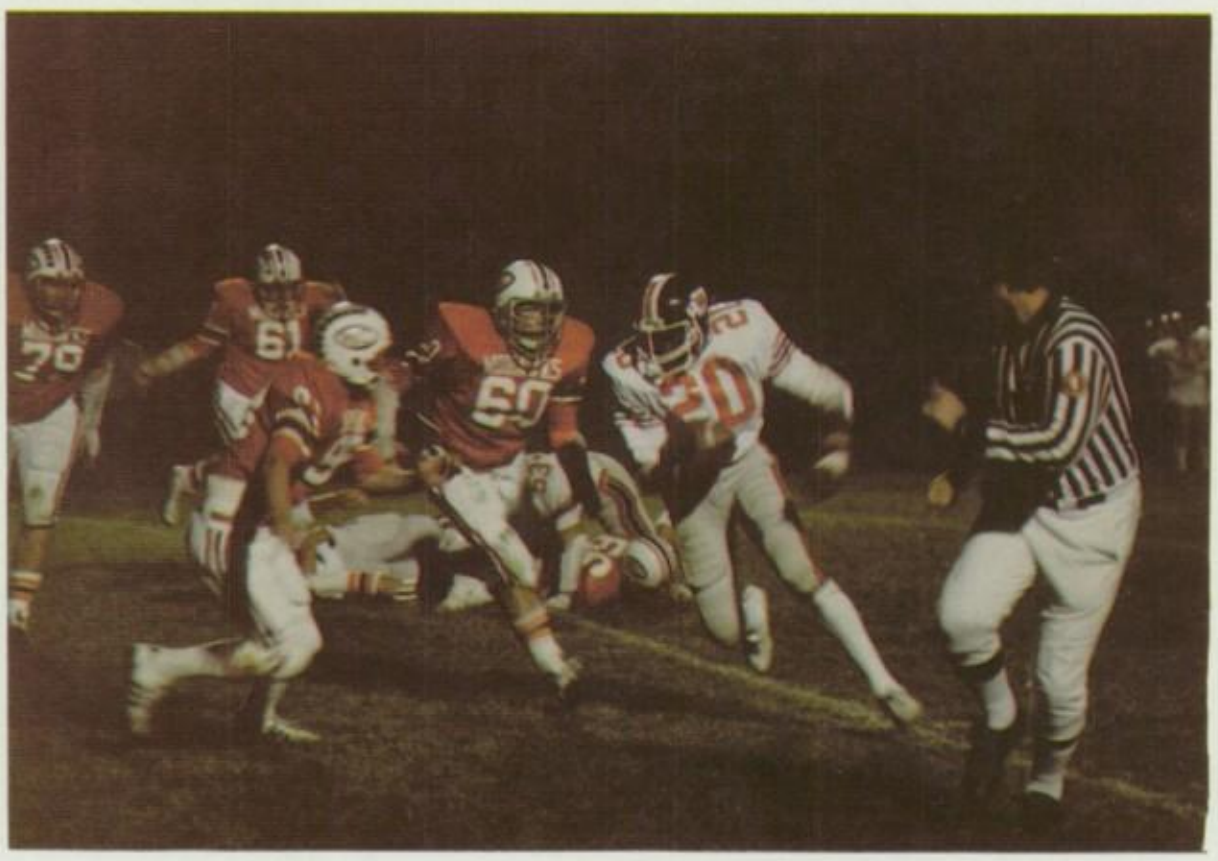


UP, UP AND AWAY- Karen Kurasek tries her luck at selling helium balloons during the homecoming game.

RISE AND SHINE-Ann Dorsey and Colleen Mahoney reveal their P.J.'s on Wake-Up to Spirit Day.



THINKING CAP- Doug Olson seems to be thinking hard while participating in Hat Day.



DELIVERING THE DUST-Kurt Percival, Rod Knudtson, Rich Edwards and Todd Krieger, attempt to stop a Wahawk during the homecoming game.

TESTING . . . TESTING . . .- Announcing for a pep assembly, Matt Hof adds to the school spirit.

FIRED UP AND READY-Firing up for their game, Bruce Kittleson, Jeff Pappas, and Ed Kent add their own enthusiasm to a pep assembly.

Mohawks show spirit

MCHS pep assemblies took a turn for the better this year. Students became more actively involved, which helped raise the spirit of the school.

The first pep assembly took place before the first football game. With the band adding life to the gym, cheerleaders and students chanted their favorite cheers. The members of the football team, dressed in their new jerseys, participated in a skit. After being blindfolded and set in chairs, they were told that they'd receive a good luck kiss from the cheerleaders. Unknown to the players, their mothers came and gave them the kiss. Their ideas on who kissed them added to the hilarity of the situation.

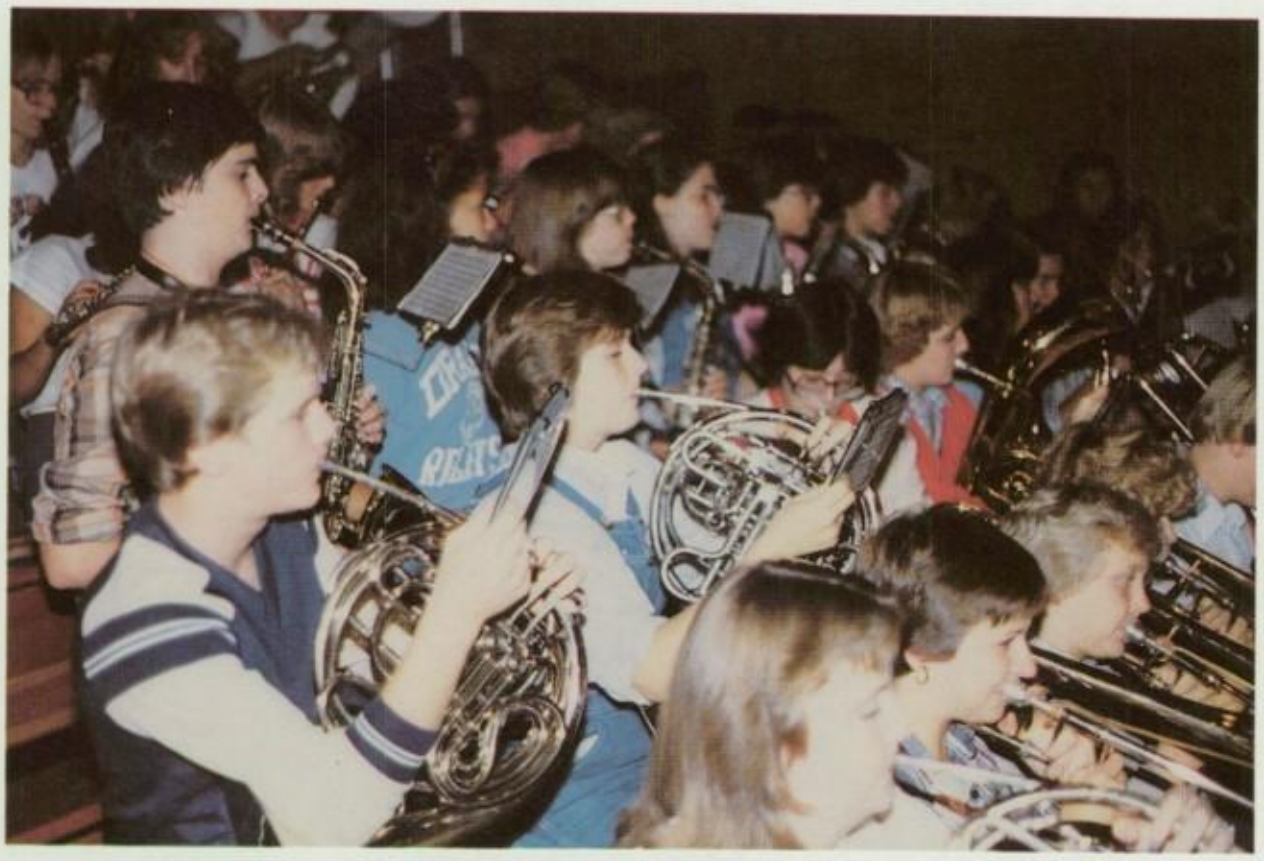
The second pep assembly introduced a class competition. The purpose of this was to have a year long competition between the sophomores, juniors, and seniors, which would build school spirit without attaching it to a winning season. The idea came from students who attended a workshop during the summer.

A pie eating contest highlighted the second pep assembly. Mr. Balk represented the sophomores; Mr. Gregory, the juniors; and Mr. Warren, the seniors. Mr. Balk won. This was the beginning of a year of better and more spirited assemblies.

HYPNOTIZED-Melinda Pappajohn and Claudia Brown listen intently at a pep assembly.

HEY YOU GUYS!-Burt Beavers wonders what some sophomores find so funny.

BLOWIN' THEIR HORNS- The MCHS pep band keeps the crowd going with some of their favorite fight songs.



New stadium opens

With great anticipation, the new MCHS stadium opened its gates to the public. Its new all-weather surface track made it one of the best in the state. Able to seat around 4,000 people, the stadium is more than adequate for the various sporting events.

The stadium contains two concession stands to better accomodate fans. These stands are run by many different activity groups from the high school. The money acquired from them is then used to pay for different expenses of these groups.

The new stadium was a standout of 1981. The bright lights and new surrounding gave the Mohawk fans a new view as they gathered at events.

STEPPING OUT-Randy Griffith leads the band in another halftime performance.

OVER THE COUNTER-Gloria Ibarra, Mikky Christenson, and Tracy McIlrath take their turn running the concession stand.

LINE IT UP!-Checking the band before they perform, Mr. Lettow makes final preparations.

MOVIN' OUT-The varsity football team heads off field for their halftime pep talk.

READY AND WAITING-The new stadium awaits fans as they come to watch their favorite team.

STUDENT LIFE

Students follow the trends

Fashions this year at the high school encompass a wide variety. The all-time favorite being blue jeans, including baggies and designer jeans. The jeans were worn with penny loafers for a new look and short western boots. These boots also dress up a plaid kiltie or jumper for the gals. Oxford shirts with button down collars were worn under the new monogramed sweaters this year. Printed turtlenecks were also seen with sweaters. Wool and corduroy blazers accented with lace collared shirts and ribbon ties were also popular on the gals. French braids were seen a lot this year with a few "Bo Derek" take-offs.

The guys' favorites were velour and wool sweaters with levis. Boots were worn with their straight legged jeans and cowboy hats to top off the western look. A popular fad enjoyed by both girls and guys were the cool and comfortable hospital shirts. As a whole the dress at MCHS was a comfortable and casual look.

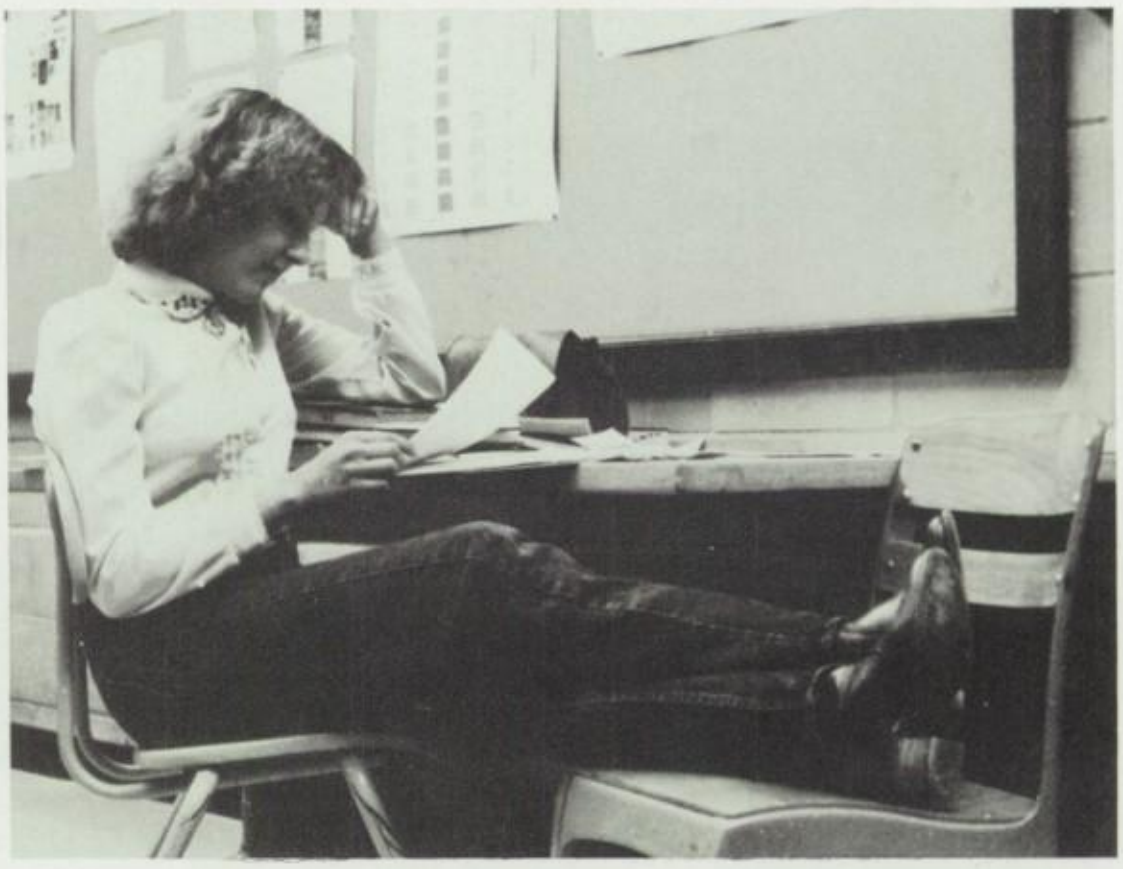
HALLWAY FASHIONS- Rounding the corner, is Mindy Masters wearing her corduroy skirt complimented with boots.

A FRENCH TWIST- Terri Wike models the new French braid.

STUDYING IN STYLE-Working in the library is Brenda Fosse wearing a monogramed sweater.



TAKING IT EASY-Lounging before class is Sue Rattay in her lace collared blouse and jeans.

PRETTY WOOLY-Sandy Rosandick models her award winning wool outfit she made.

Are you free Friday night?

R-I-N-G - I sure hope she answers this time, so I don't make a fool out of myself when talking to her mother again. I've got the worst case of the butterflies right now.

"Hello."

"Linda, I was wondering are you free this Friday night to go to a movie with me?" I blurted out all in one breath.

"This is her little brother Jay, just a minute and I'll get her. LINDA! Some boy is on the phone!" I felt about two inches high. How could I have done that?

"Hello, this is Linda."

"This is Mark Smith and I was wondering if you are free Friday night to go to the movie with me?"

"Are you the Mark that sits behind me in English?" Oh great, she doesn't even know who I am.

"Ya, I'm the one." Now I know for sure she'll say no.

"I'm not doing anything as of yet; Sure I'll go, Mark." Wow! She said yes. I could have jumped through the ceiling, I was so happy!

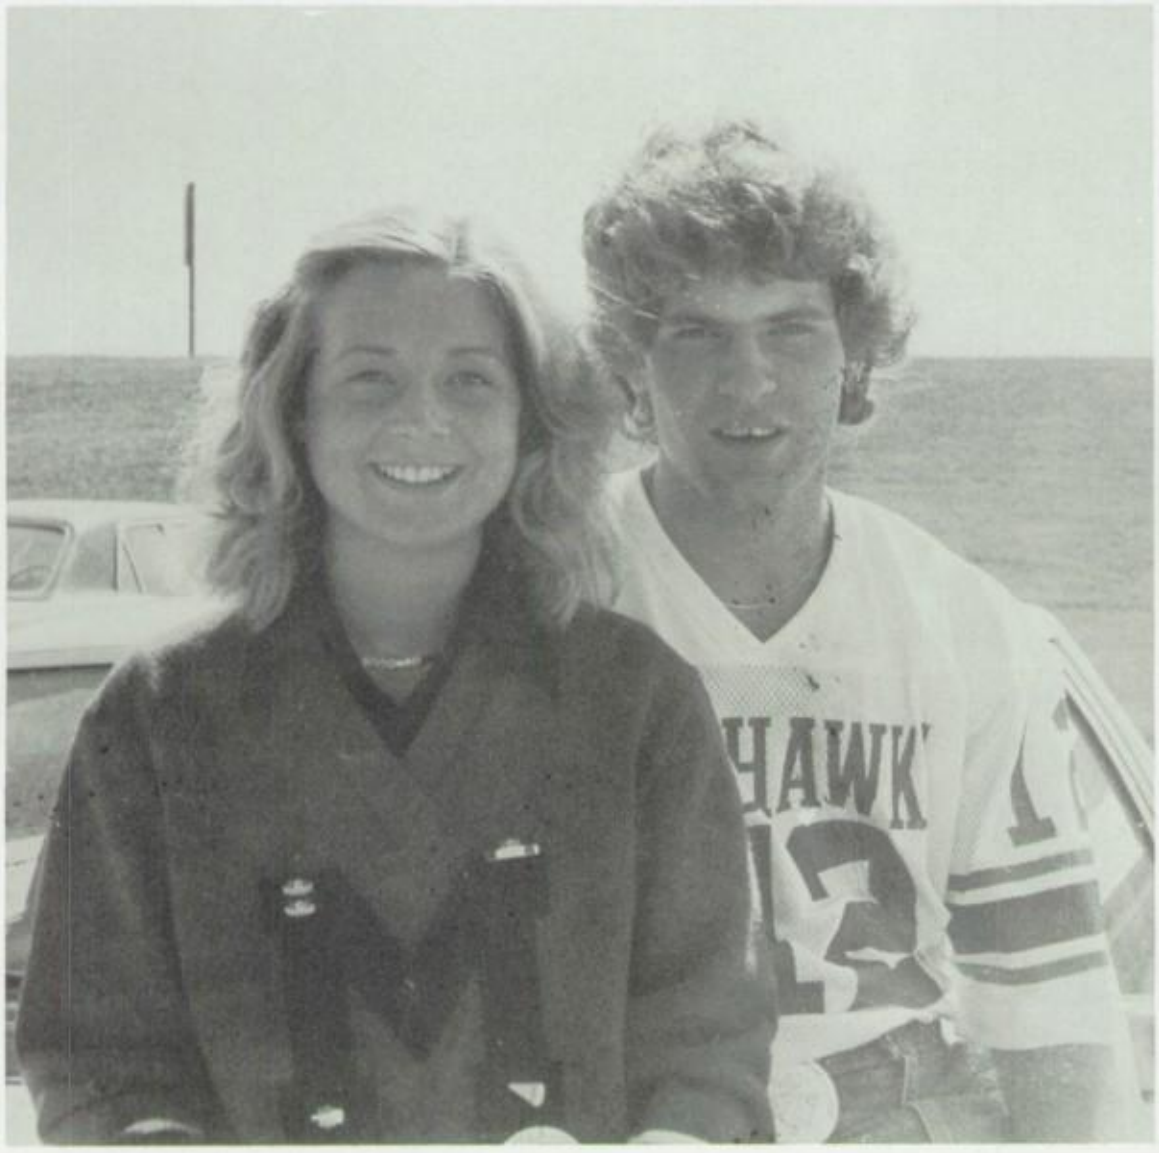
"I'll pick you up at 7:00 o'clock then. Is that all right?"

"Sure. Talk to you tomorrow in English."

"Bye." Click. What am I going to say to her tomorrow? We don't have anything in common. Panic strikes.

FRIDAY NIGHT- beep beep I hope she likes my new pants; I just bought

A MOHAWK MATCH-Mike Cannella and Kris Dorenkamp look forward to the Friday night activities.



READY TO GO-With the last class over, Steve Dostart and Brenda Losey grab their books and run.

SIDE BY SIDE-Pausing between classes to be together are Jim Meggers and Shelley Webner.

them yesterday. I hope nothing happened so she can't go. Knowing my luck, it did. There she is, dressed in her old jeans! I wish I could go home and change now. I really look like a fool.

"Hi, Mark."

"Hi, Linda." She didn't say anything. I could tell by her expression that she was embarrassed to be seen with me. The silence was so unbearable I coughed just to make a noise. I felt so uncomfortable. I knew it was going to be a terrible night; something is going to go wrong — I can tell. I might not take her out for pizza afterwards. I reached in my pocket, "Two please," and pulled out a one instead of a ten! I broke out in sweat. What a disaster. I don't even know her and I have to ask her to pay! Now I know we won't be going to Godfather's afterwards. She said she didn't mind, but I bet she was thinking what a klutz I am. I couldn't even offer to buy her popcorn. What a night. My car probably will stall and I won't have any money to call home. I had the worst thoughts running through my head. I didn't enjoy the movie at all. To hold her hand would give me confidence but as I moved my arm closer, I bumped the old lady next to me, and her pop ended upon my leg! This movie lasted forever. To top it off, I spotted my bratty neighbor kid across the aisle, and he spotted me! (How embarrassing) The movie is over now.

As we were walking out of the Palace, she said, "Thanks a lot for asking me to the movie, Mark. I really have to be home early tonight so we better call it an evening."

"Sure, I understand." Silence on the way home again- I guess I blew my chance of asking her out again. I didn't think I would be that nervous on my first date, but at least I lived through it!

TAKING A BREAK-Eric Merritt and Bev Simmonds relax between classes.

PAIR OF ROLLERS-Mike Demaris and Debbie Pannhoff practice their skating routine together.

TWO PLEASE-Ed Kent and Susan Daleske enjoy an evening at the movies.

Money attracts students

High school students not only have their daily homework assignments to do, but they also have jobs to attend. Jobs are a very important part of the daily routine for Mason City High School students.

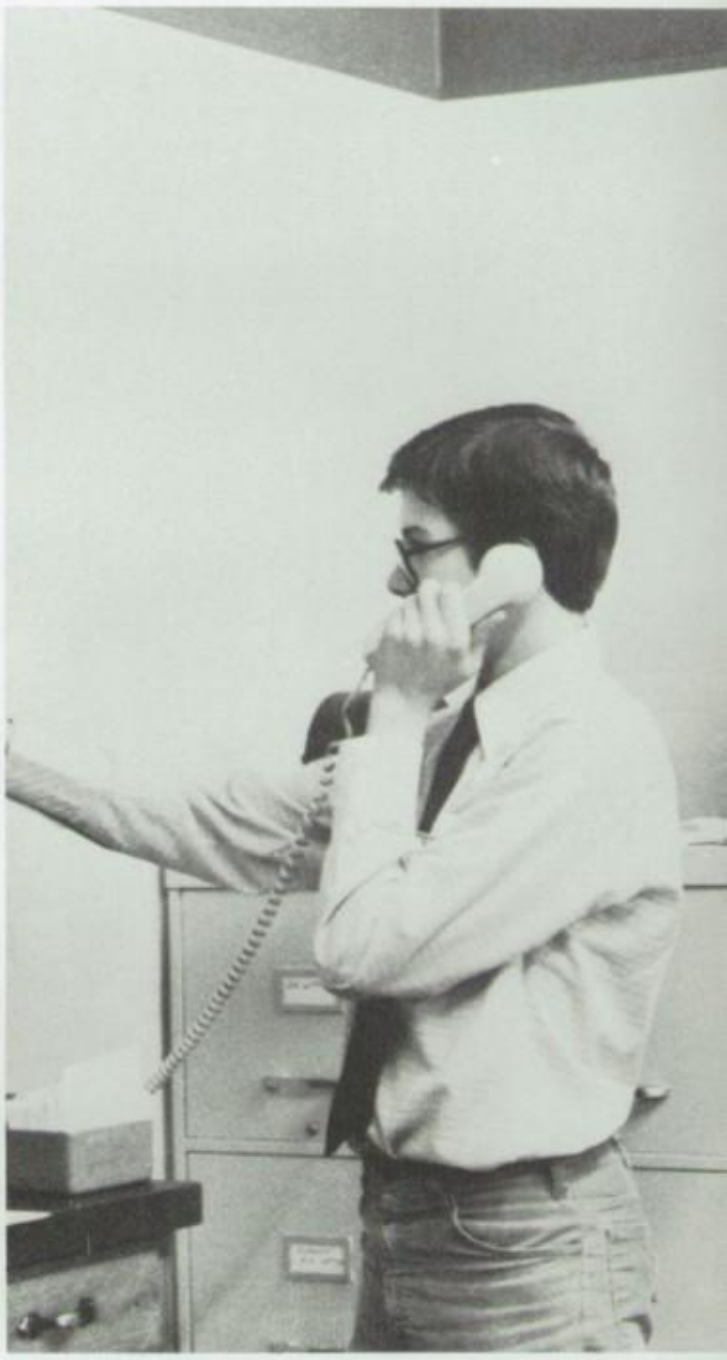
Jobs help students learn the responsibility of preparing for a full time job, even though they may only average fifteen hours a week depending on their individual schedules. Many students have the privilege of leaving school early for their jobs.

After school and on weekends students are working for a variety of reasons: extra pocket money, car payments, clothes, and college. Many students also have checking and savings accounts.

Types of jobs range from fast food restaurants and department stores to grocery stores and the hospital. Some students are involved in school-sponsored jobs such as on-the-job-training or helping teachers with their office work.

Having a job helps students meet new challenges and learn how to work with other people. A job helps students become independent and learn how to manage their money, by saving for their future plans.

CUSTOMER SERVICE, MAY I HELP YOU?-Rod Everding is busy answering the switchboard at Sears.

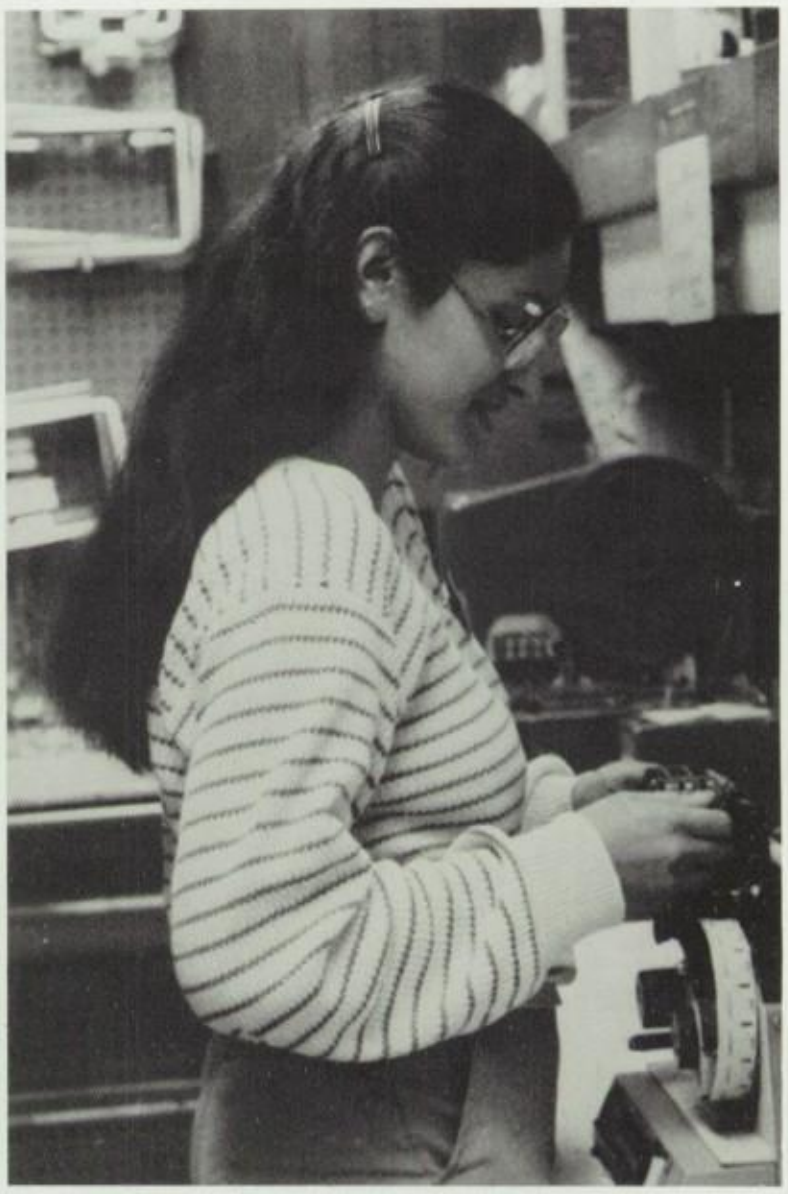


THIS LOOKS LIKE A GOOD ONE-Ann Torgerson searches the shelves for a frequent request at B. Dalton's.

THAT COMES TO . . .-Shelley Ellsworth adds up the orders of the customers at Hardees.

GIVE IT A SHAKE-While working in the hardware department at Sears, Ellen Schmidt mixes some paint.

$6.99, $6.99, . . .-Patti Garcia is busy ticketing new merchandise at Target.



STROLLING THE AISLES-Chris Peterson smiles as he stocks the shelves at work.

Follies prove successful again

The 33rd annual Mohawk Follies were held for the second time at the NIACC Auditorium on January 22, 24, and 25th. They opened the show with their traditional "Another Op'nin Another Show" sung by the swing chorus.

A duet followed sung by Teresa Driskell and Bruce Stasch. Another duet was also sung by Anne Groth and Bob VanEvery. Solos were sung by Anne Groth, Randy Griffith and Sue Wilson. A quartet also sang, performed by Dave Copenhaver, Dan Ray, Rick Sullivan and John Klesath.

A barbershop chorus sang two songs directed by Paul Wigley. A barbershop quartet including Phil DeVries, Rod Knudston, Rod Wastier and Bob VanEvery also performed.

There were three skits that seemed to please everyone: Family Fued, Ask Aunt Fanny, and Boogaloo. All three groups performed well to the delight of the audience.

The Blues Brothers seemed to be the favorite of the majoirty of students who attended the follies. Dave Copenhaver and Scott Goodwin's imitation of these two characters was a big success.

The Mohawk Chorale sang two songs: "Dont Let the Music Stop" and "Waltz for Two Left Feet." The jazz band played three songs and also with the swing chorus.

Two dance numbers were also included: Hand Jive with Pam Ahrens,

SINGING IT TOGETHER- Bruce Stasch and Teresa Driskell sing a song together

SINGIN'-Laura Studer and Rod Wastier enjoy singing during a Swing Chorus number.

Val Camarigg, Laura Gobeli, Lori Jo Johnson, Lynda Kelly, and Ann Whalen; and The Walk featuring Andrea Pappajohn, Melinda Pappajohn, Beth Reynolds, Sarah Stocks and Susan Stocks.

A mime troupe performed a short number adding variety to the follies.

Mark Whitlock, director of the jazz band, stated, "Being the first year in the follies I was very impressed with the performances, organization and professionalism. I was very proud to be associated with it."

The production contained 28 numbers, 10 of which were performed by large set groups like the Mohawk Chorale, swing chorus, and the jazz band.

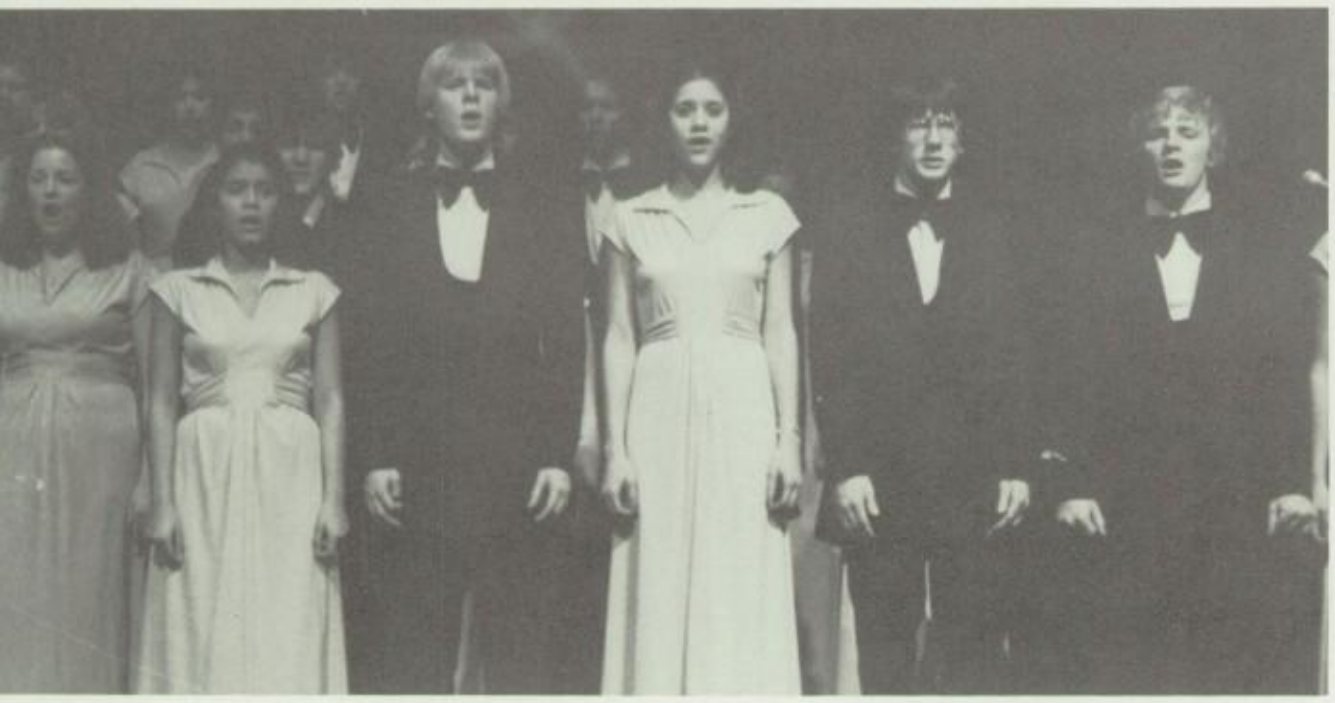
The group is roughly a 140 in number and is composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors, who must try out to be accepted to perform.

Ron Phillips, Paul Wigley and Mark Whitlock directed the three performances. "It was a very smooth production, generally the cast and crew had been one of the most cooperative yet. We had technical problems but the show kept moving," stated Mr. Phillips.

The production proved to be an enjoyable one with many students getting to see their peers perform in one of M.C.H.S.'s finest traditions.

IT'S A STICK UP-Anita Flores, Dan Ray, Chris Francis, and Mark Radford hold their hands up while performing in the Mohawk Chorale.

ASTHMA?!?-Bruce Hugo, Ted Wulfkuhler, and Eric Merritt provided one of the comedy skits.



SOLEMNLY SINGING-Anne Groth, Anita Flores, Eric Merritt, Cristie Zanios, Scott Schulz, and Kent Porter sing a solemn song.

Elections highlight year's events

1980-1981 was a time of much change throughout the world and nation.

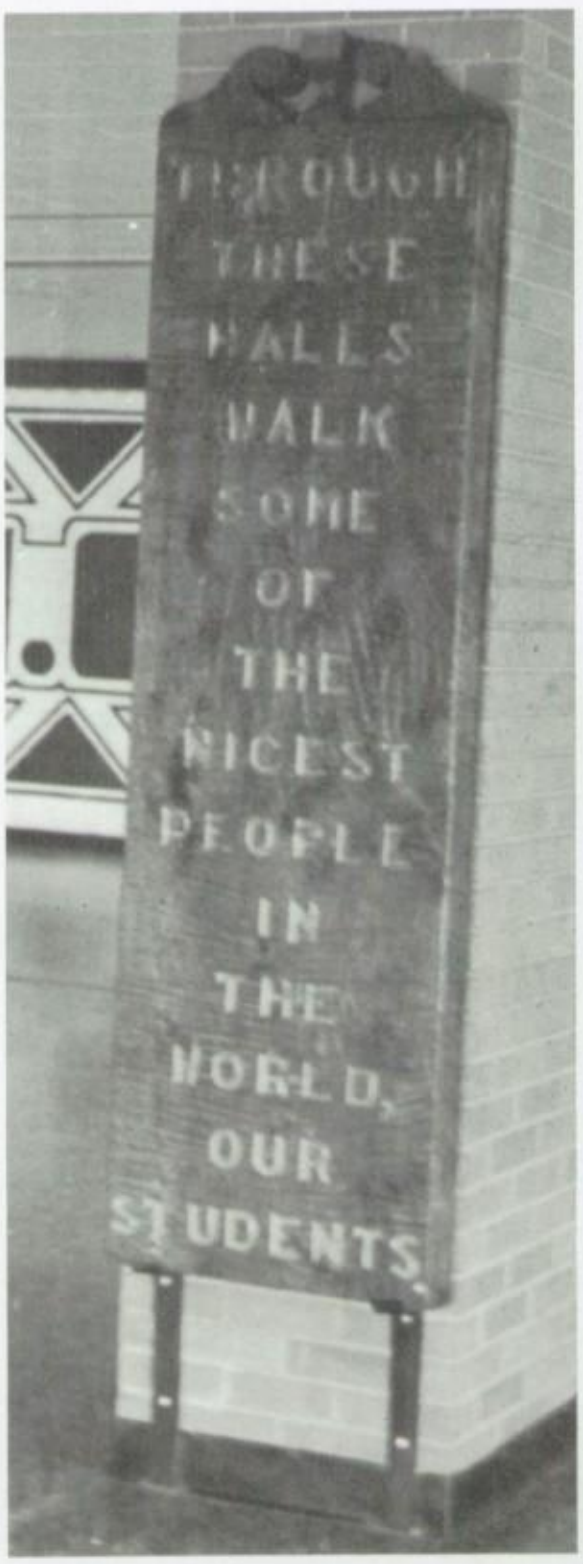
1980 was an election year and about half of the U.S. population showed up to vote. The final result showed Ronald Reagan as the winner over incumbent Jimmy Carter by a landslide. Congress was also taken over by the Republican Party. Many people who were in Congress for a long time were defeated in the 1980 election. Many Mason City High School students voted for the first time in this year's election.

The hostages in Iran remained in captivity and at the concern of many U.S. citizens. Because of the Russian movement into Afghanistan, the 1980 Summer Olympics held in Moscow were boycotted by the U.S. Registration was also reinstated.

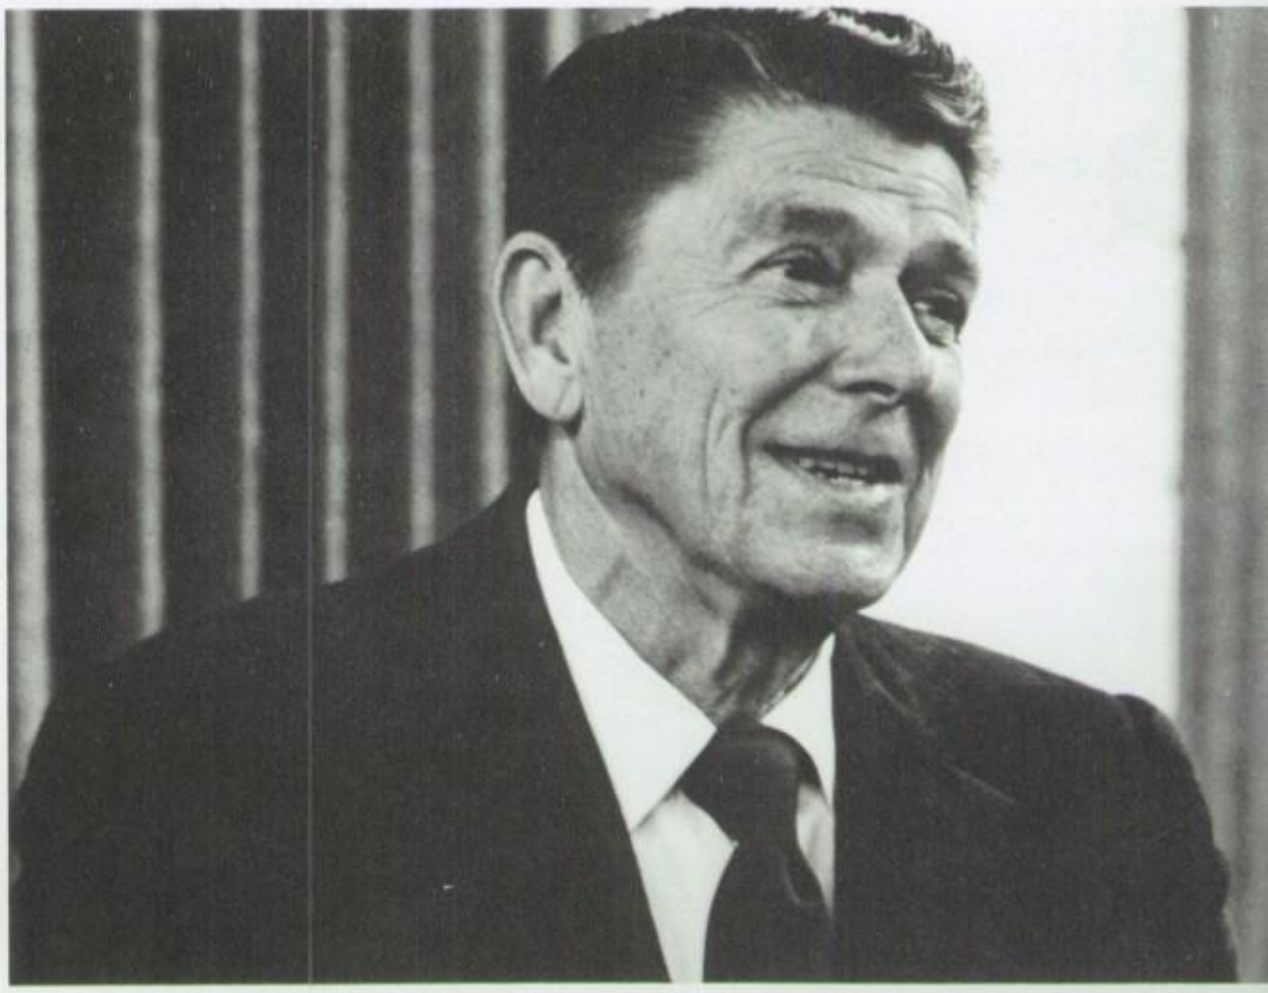
Another thing the nation did was spent many months wondering who shot J.R. Ewing of the hit series "Dallas." After many months of secrecy and much dilemma the suspect was revealed to all on November 21, 1980. Kristin, Sue Ellen's sister and J.R.'s mistress was the culprit.

In the city a recent change was the one-way streets being changed to two-way in various locations. Gates were also installed to some East Park entrances. The city also won a suit in regards to the Southbridge Mall project which gave a go-ahead for the project.

NO ENTRANCE-The gates at East Park lock people out after 11:00 p.m. These gates are a new addition to the park.



NEW ADDITION-Shown here is a plaque made by the wood shop, which is a new addition to the commons.



LEADER OF THE PACK-In the 1980 presidential election Ronald Reagan was elected president.

All and all it was a busy year.

Gas and the economy, as in the past, was a big news item. Gas costs rose to between $1.15 and $1.50 a gallon. Rising costs of gas caused students to change their form of transportation. Bikes, mopeds, car pools and walking became more popular with the high cost of fuel.

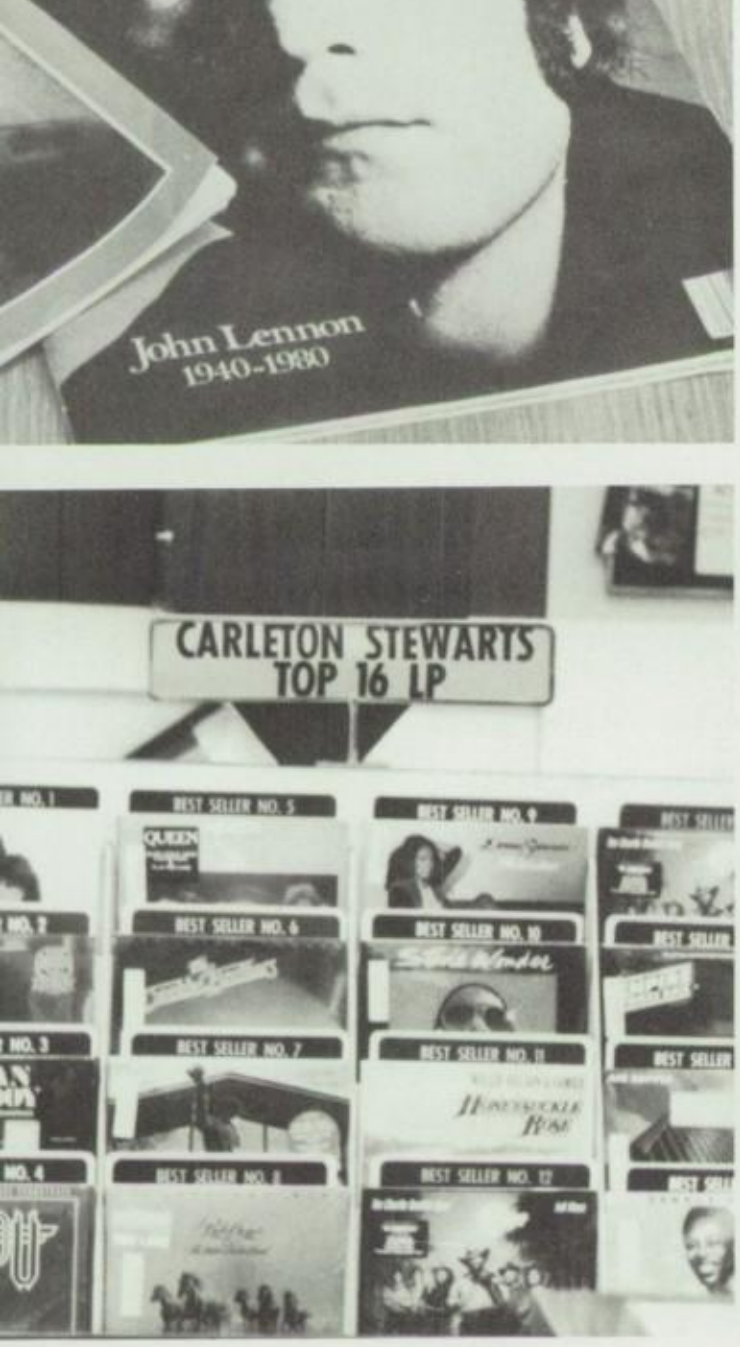
"Another One Bites the Dust" became the theme of the football team as they defeated their foes to take a share in the Big 8 Conference title. This song by Queen was a top hit and sold many singles. Not only was it a Mohawk favorite, but college and pro teams picked up the tune of this hit and used it for their own theme song.

John Travolta moved up from the disco to Gilles', a hang out in Texas. Bringing with it a western trend and a hit sound-track and movie, the "Urban Cowboy."

On December 8th, a former Beatle and rock star, John Lennon, was shot. He was shot five times in front of his apartment in New York City. At the age of forty and in the beginning of starting over, Lennon was assasinated.

In the school teachers and students prepared for the move of ninth graders into the high school. Next year freshmen through seniors will join together to complete the high school.

THE LATE GREAT-John Lennon was shot to death December 8th in front of his apartment.



NAME THAT TUNE-Top albums on the 1980's are displayed here.

I ONLY HAVE TWO DOLLARS-The gas pumps here and everywhere were getting less use because of the rising price of gas.

ACADEMICS

Art and P.E. offer many opportunities

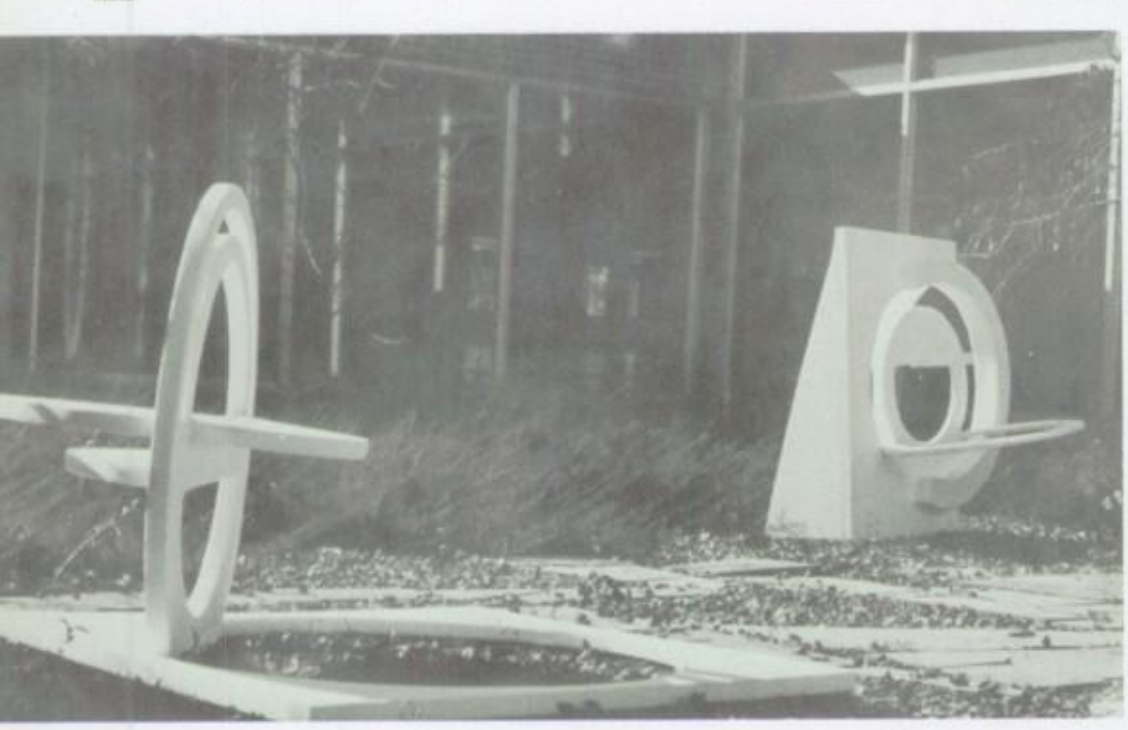
The art department was active this year, as in past years. The highlight of the year was the field trip to Minnesota on November 5. Forty art students and teachers went to the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis to see portraits by Chuck Chose.

After the art show they traveled to the Gutherie Dinner Theatre to see the play "Mary Stuart."

Students worked on several different projects throughout the year. Something new this year were styrofoam sculptures, which were on display in the courtyard. Other students worked on their projects trying to get them ready for contest in March.

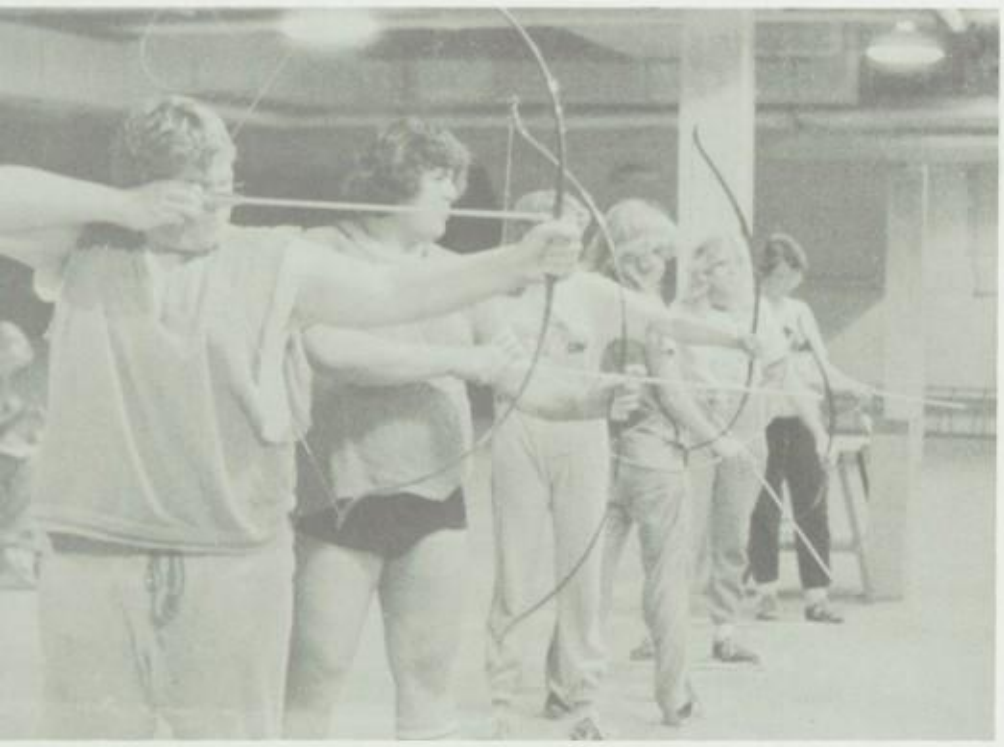
Beginning this year physical education was changed to a graded course. Grades were based upon absences and effort. Juniors and seniors had the opportunity to select their various activities.

HARD WORKING STUDENTS-Melinda Pappajohn, Kris Sorenson, Kim Swanson work on their projects in Jewelry class.

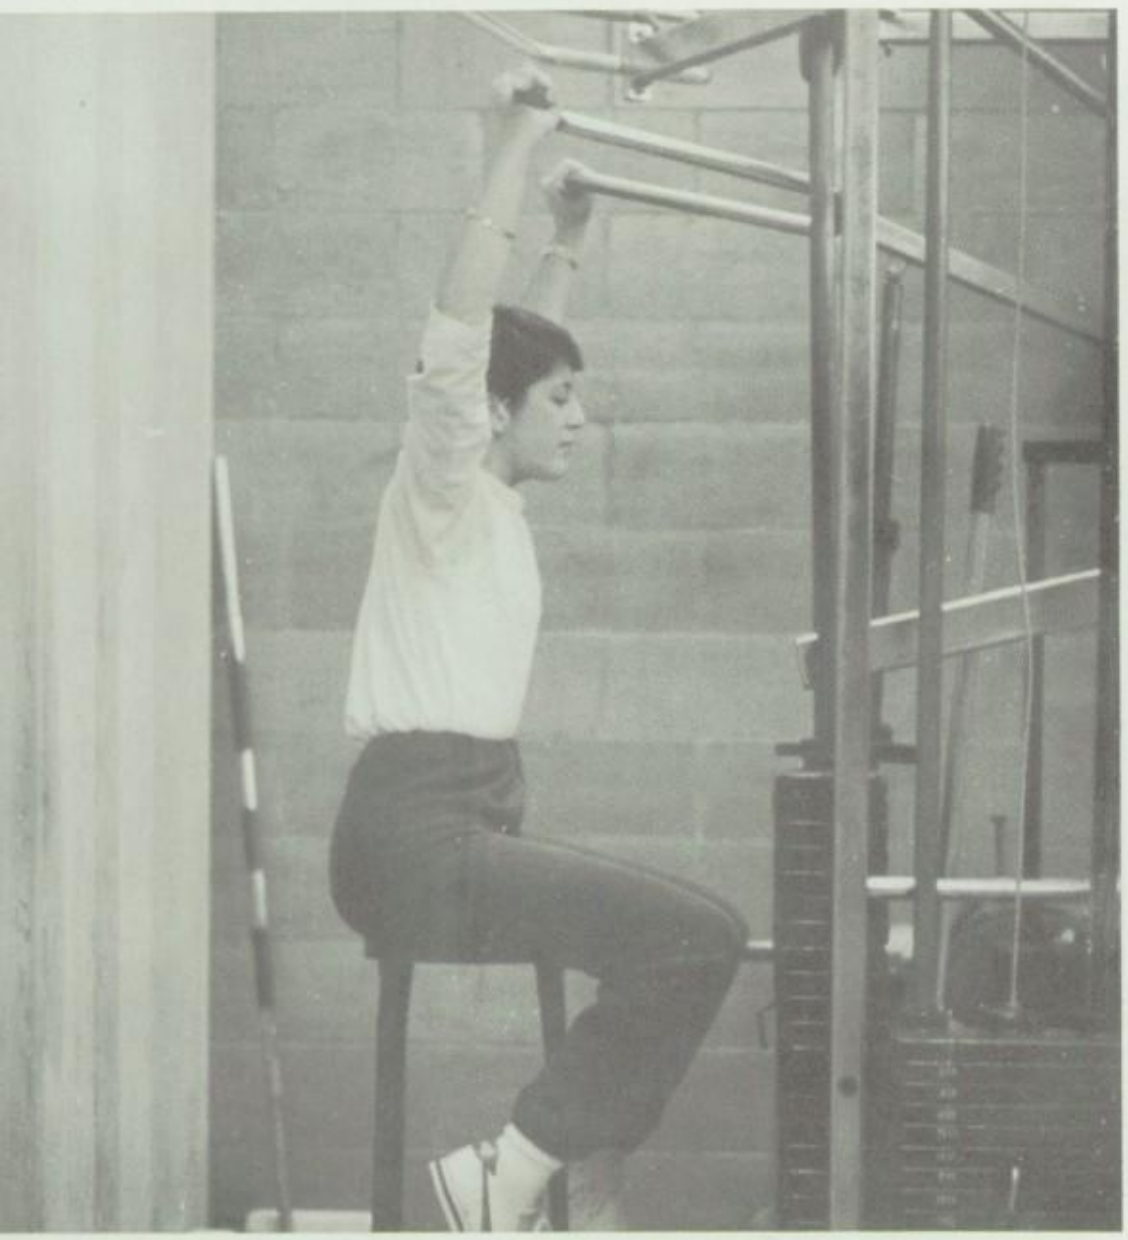


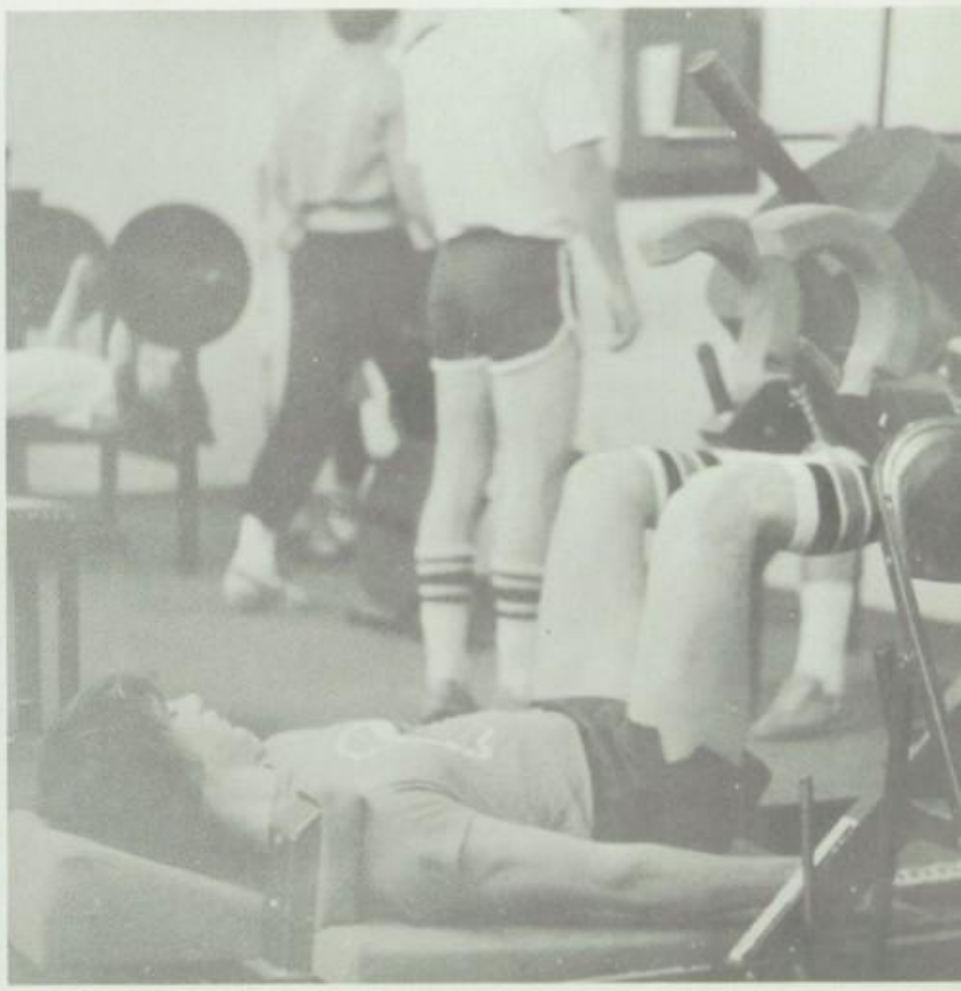
LANDINGS FROM OUTER SPACE?-No, just some of Mr. Luker's sculpture class work.

STICK'EM UP-Jim Burgess works on his sculpture in art class.



READY, AIM, FIRE-Bill Lange takes aim in archery class.





NOT TAKING IT LYING DOWN-Dan McCord works on one of the many machines in the weight room.

CONCENTRATION-Jane Bobgan works up a sweat in weight lifting class.

PUMPING IRON-Felix Ruiz works hard in his weight lifting class.

Math and Science prepare students for future

The Math and Science Departments at MCHS offer students a variety of courses from which to build their schedules.

Students must earn two credits in both math and science in order to graduate. Biology is also required of all students.

Classes in the math area include subjects in probability and statistics, computer programming, trigonometry, precalculus, analysis, algebra, and geometry.

Physics, chemistry, drugs, conservation, ecology, anatomy and physiology are a few of the variety of science courses available to students at the high school.

Both departments attempt to prepare students in areas which experts predict a shortage of personnel for the upcoming decade.

Many of the students now enrolled in these courses may be the doctors, scientists, conservationists, and computer programmers of the future.

These students strived to learn about the environment, themselves, and the various relationships between the two on a physical level.

FOLLOW THE LEADER- Junior Terry Abendroth, Seniors Beth Hendrikson and Karen Bottorff help with activities in conservation.

WEIGH IN- Sophomore Lawana Good weighs her project in biology.

SEARCHING FOR BIG GAME- Junior Scott Rippentrop, seniors Don Hunt and Dave Judge walk back to class after setting mouse traps in conservation class.

LIKE THIS- Bob Bye helps senior Walt Smith with a math problem.

Language Arts and Social Studies involve all

The language arts and social studies departments are vital parts of the educational process at Mason City High School.

The correct understanding, speaking, and writing of the English language are skills acquired in the language arts area.

In addition to required courses it includes electives such as: Speech, Creative Writing, Contemporary Fiction, Journalism, and World Literature.

The social studies department involves history, geography, and courses such as Psychology and Sociology, which help the student understand himself and others.

Economics assists young people in learning how to save, spend, and invest money wisely.

Government is an important pre-requisite for becoming a better citizen and learning to participate in a knowledgeable capacity.

Students selected courses from the electives as well as taking the required basics throughout their high school schedules.

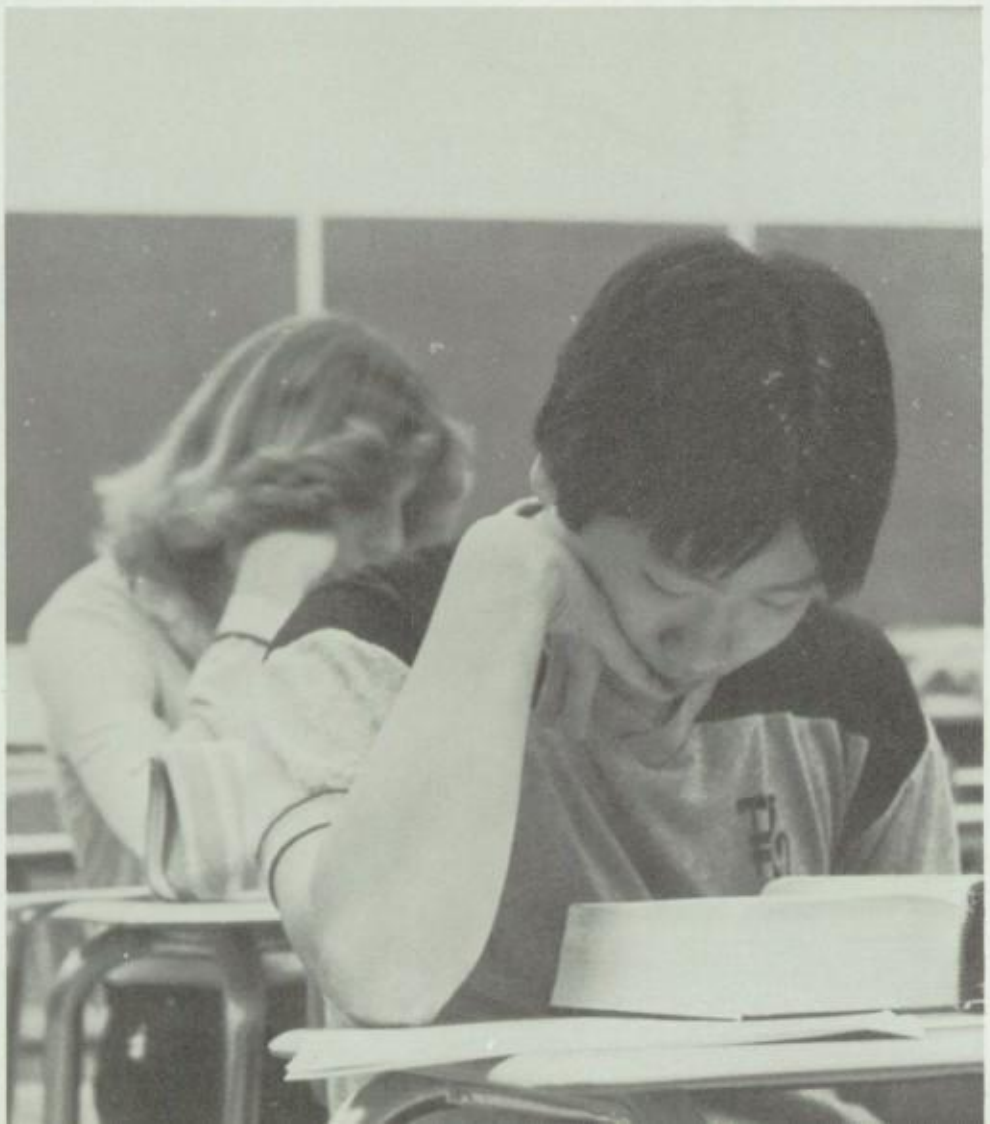
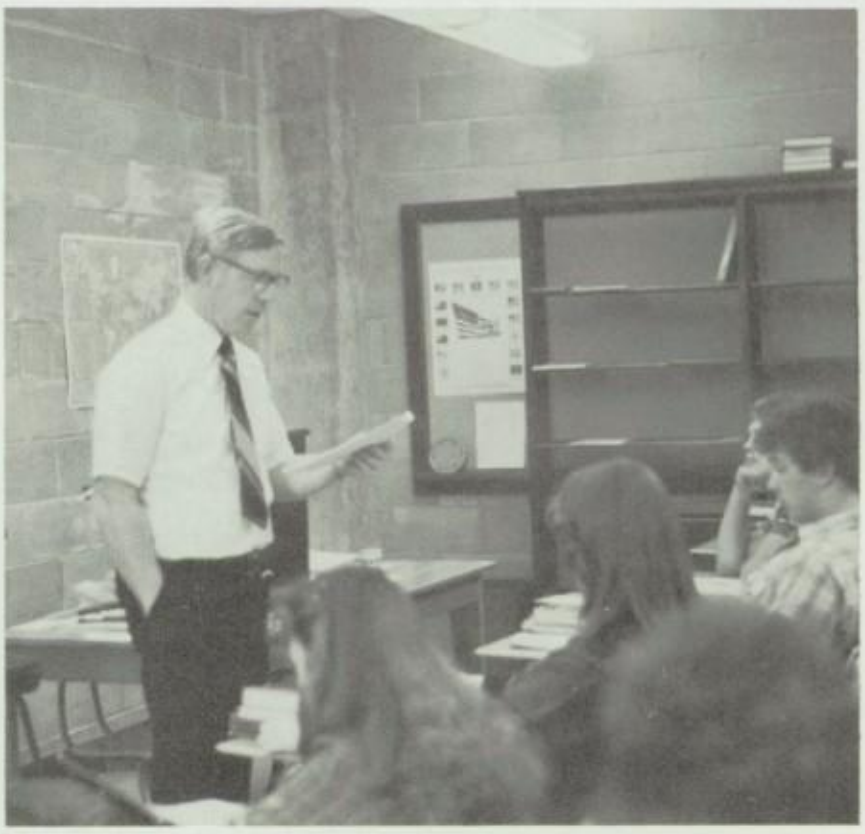
HUNT AND PECK-Colleen Mahoney clicks out copy for Yearbook.

IT'S NOT HALLOWEEN, IT'S GREEK FEST-Jim Kantaris, Lynda Kelly, Tracie Sjolinder, Jodie Schmidt, and Gina Lee present a skit in World Lit.

HOW ABOUT IVANHOE?-Mrs. Mitchell of the LARC handles hundreds of books daily and always with a smile.

LISTENING ATTENTIVELY?-Lisa Malfero, Dave Mariner, and Mary Middleton concentrate.





TO BECOME A CITIZEN YOU MUST . . .-Mr. Hudson goes over a sample immigration paper with his class.

HOW DO YOU SPELL RELIEF FROM HOMEWORK?-Stan Hahn diligently studies the dictionary.

Music is quite a business

The music department is divided into three different sections, the orchestra, the band and the vocal departments.

The orchestra has concerts throughout the year presenting a variety of music.

The band provides half time entertainment at the football games as well as a pep band for winter activities. The band also performs in the Mohawk follies.

The vocal department presents two concerts, a Christmas and a spring program. They also are a big part in the Mohawk follies.

Business classes at the high school are very popular classes with the students getting ready for college. The business department offers a variety of classes such as office machines, accounting and typing.

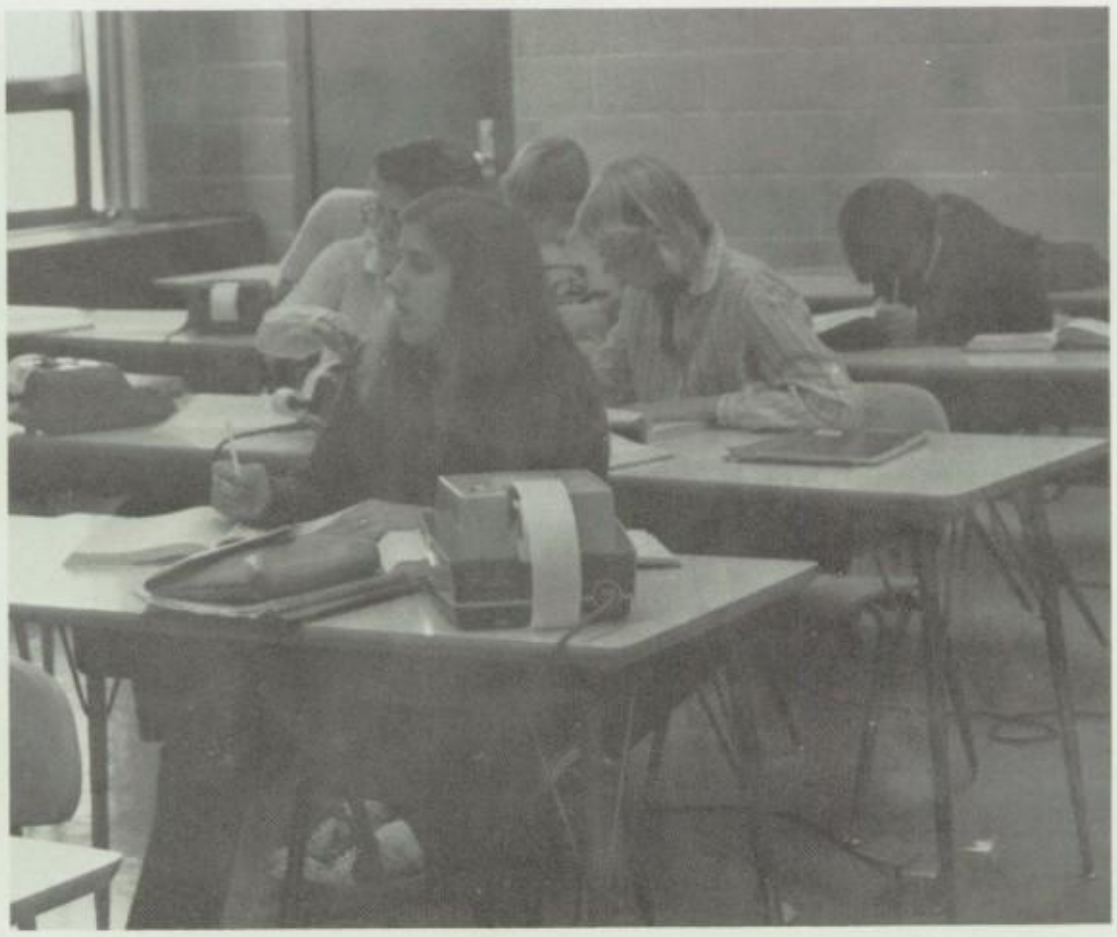
NOT ANOTHER- Senior Anne Groth sighs over another mistake.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT- Sophomore Lorie Mahoney is busy practicing her typing.

TAKE A BOW- Sophomores Pat Hannan, Mike Blutt, Chris Yarrow and Mary Wisman are practicing their vocal breathing techniques.

RE MI- Seniors Rod Knudtson and Randy ffith practice another song.

DISTRACTED- Junior Mary Ennis is distracted during her accounting class.



STRETCH- Sophomores Mike Fitzerald, Rob Brookhart, John Hanna and Carol Shimak stretch during music class.

Areas offer practical training for future

Guest speakers and field trips highlighted the year for students in the various home ec classes at MCHS.

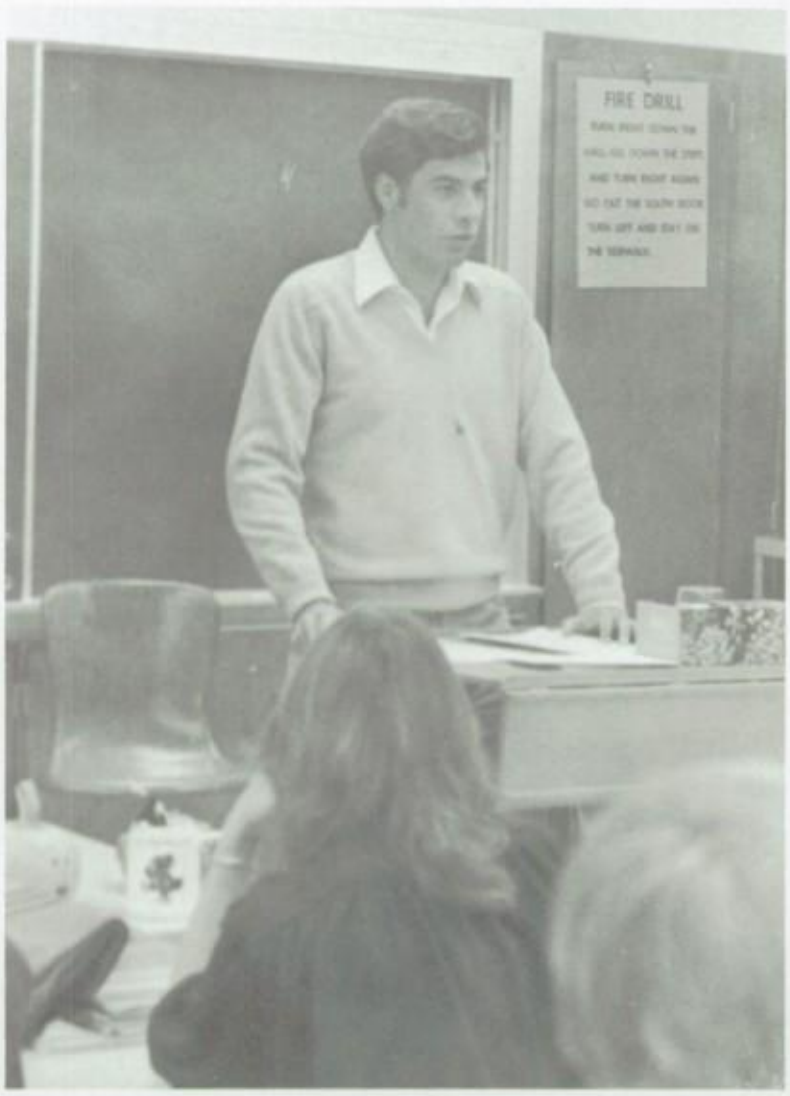
Students had the opportunity to visit Handicap Village in Clear Lake, listen to former student Pete Espinosa, discuss energy usage with Mrs. Lincicum from Interstate Power, and enjoy a variety of other activities.

A wide variety of classes were offered that allowed students to try their hand in a number of areas.

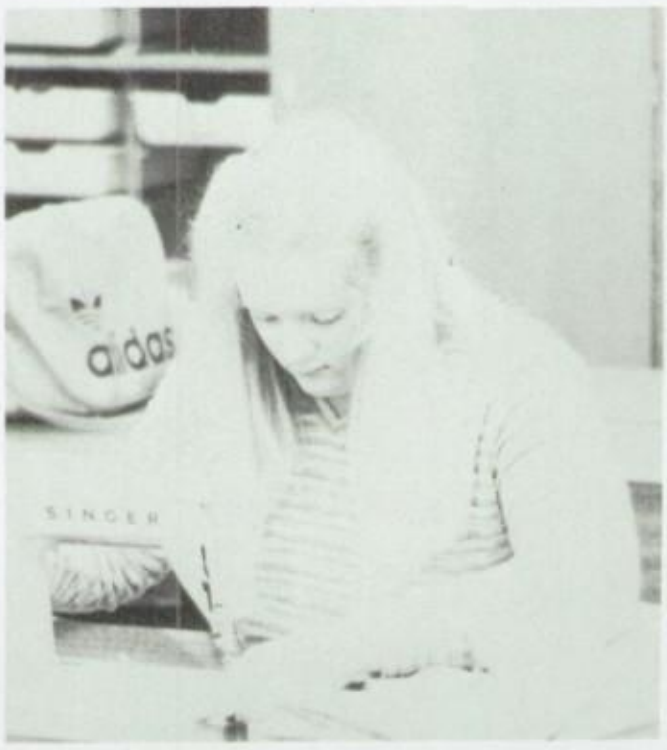
Industrial arts students also selected from a wide variety of classes which included; automotive, mechanical drawing, woods, metals, electricity, and others.

Many of these courses offered career education which will lead to jobs in the future.

A BETTER IDEA!-Mrs. Lincicum from the Interstate Power Company discusses energy conservation with one of Mrs. Gilles' classes.



IT'S LIKE THIS-Graduate Pete Espinosa discusses college life in Miss DeLong's class.

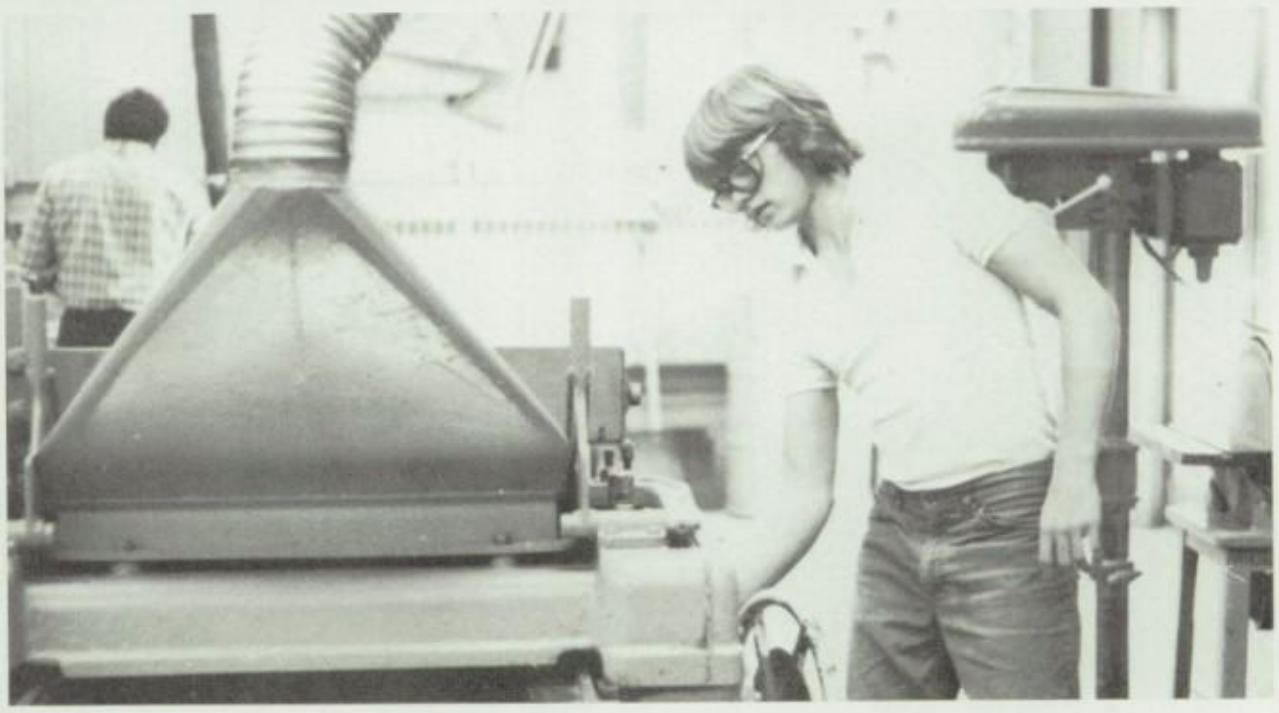


A STITCH IN TIME-Bev Walters works on her sewing project.

CHECKING IT OUT-Beth Boyenga and Sherri Olsen check out a light bulb in home ec.

GETTING IT RIGHT-Tony Gregor prepares to work on his industrial arts project.

LIKE THIS-Junior Lance Ebbers gets advice from Mr. Wunderlich.



PREPARATION-Sophomore Jill Funk takes time to sort her cloth.

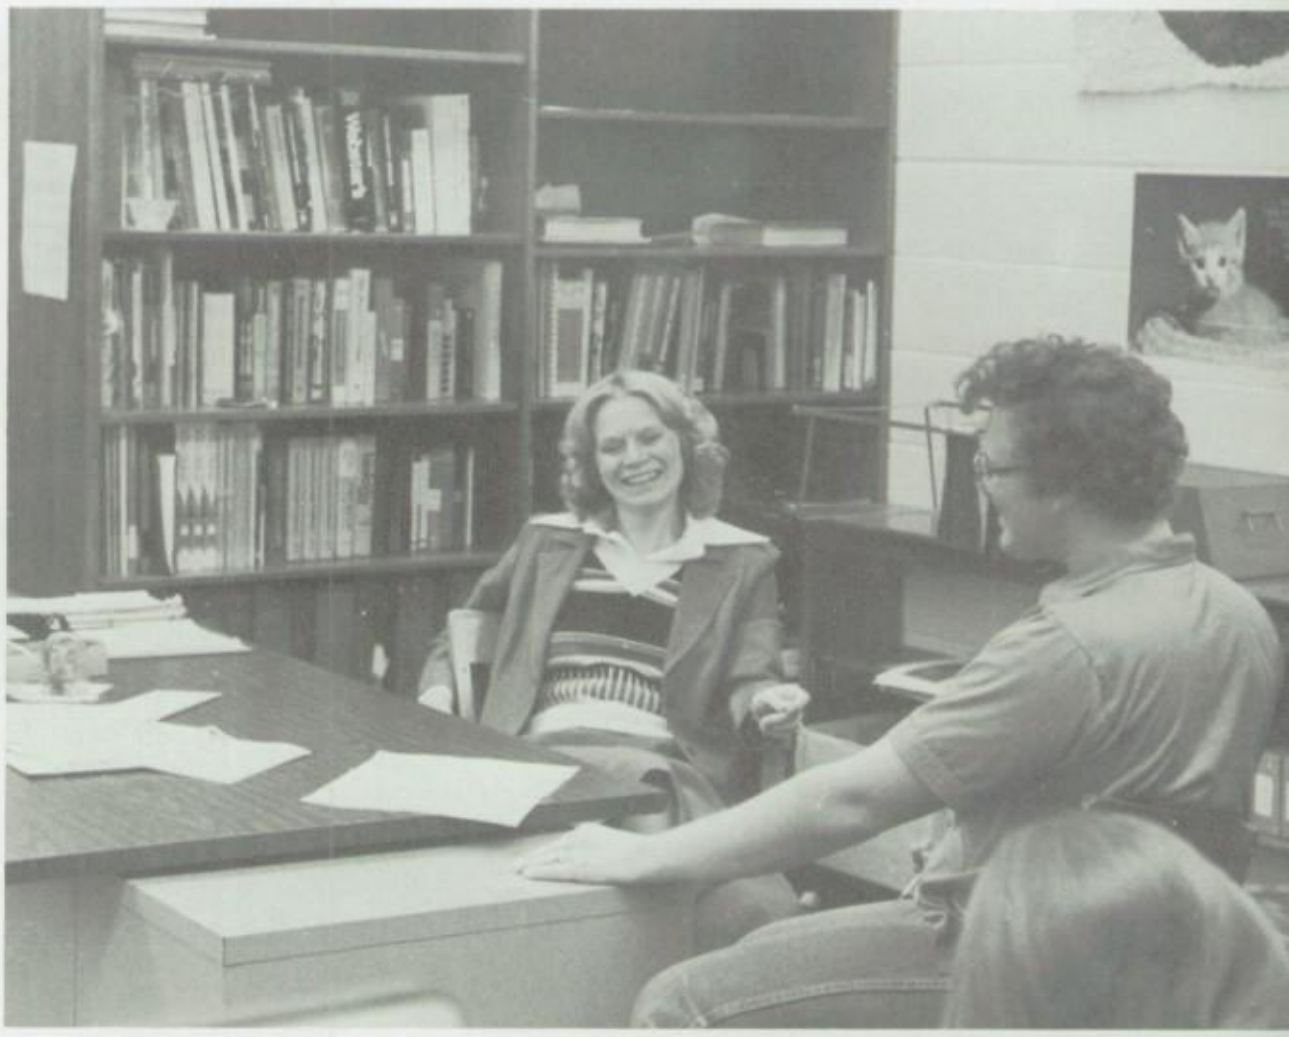
STOKING HER UP-Junior Chris Colby readies the equipment in woods.

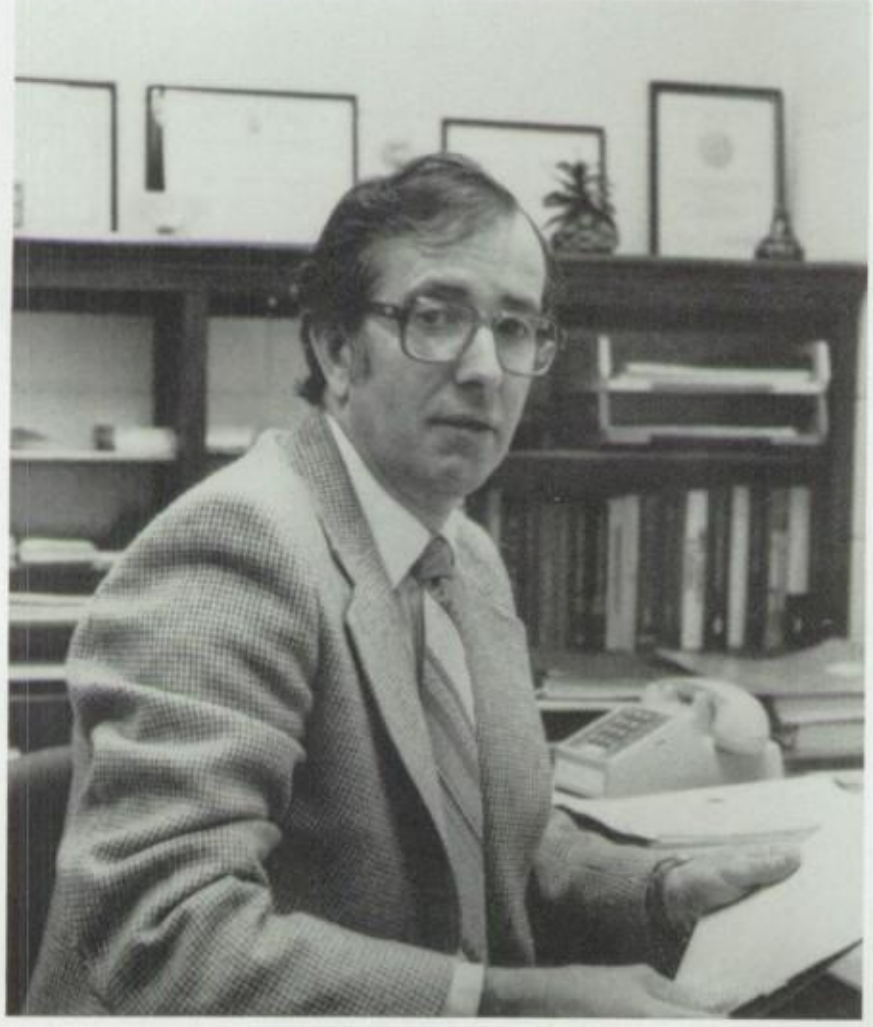
School attempts to meet individual needs

During the school year some students required help from the staff in various ways. Both the counseling center and the special education department strived to meet students' individual needs.

The counseling staff at MCHS assists the students in personal counseling, determining educational and career goals, and providing information on tests, records, and research for college. In most cases, counselors help students make decisions for themselves.

The goals of the special education department are set individually by students and teachers. Major emphasis is placed on academics and successful completion of assigned work. Teachers have a greater opportunity to counsel students personally because of the one-to-one format. The department includes a resource room and work study areas. Aid is given to students through tapes and interpretation of reading material. The cooperation and rapport between students and instructors makes this an excellent program for students with special needs.



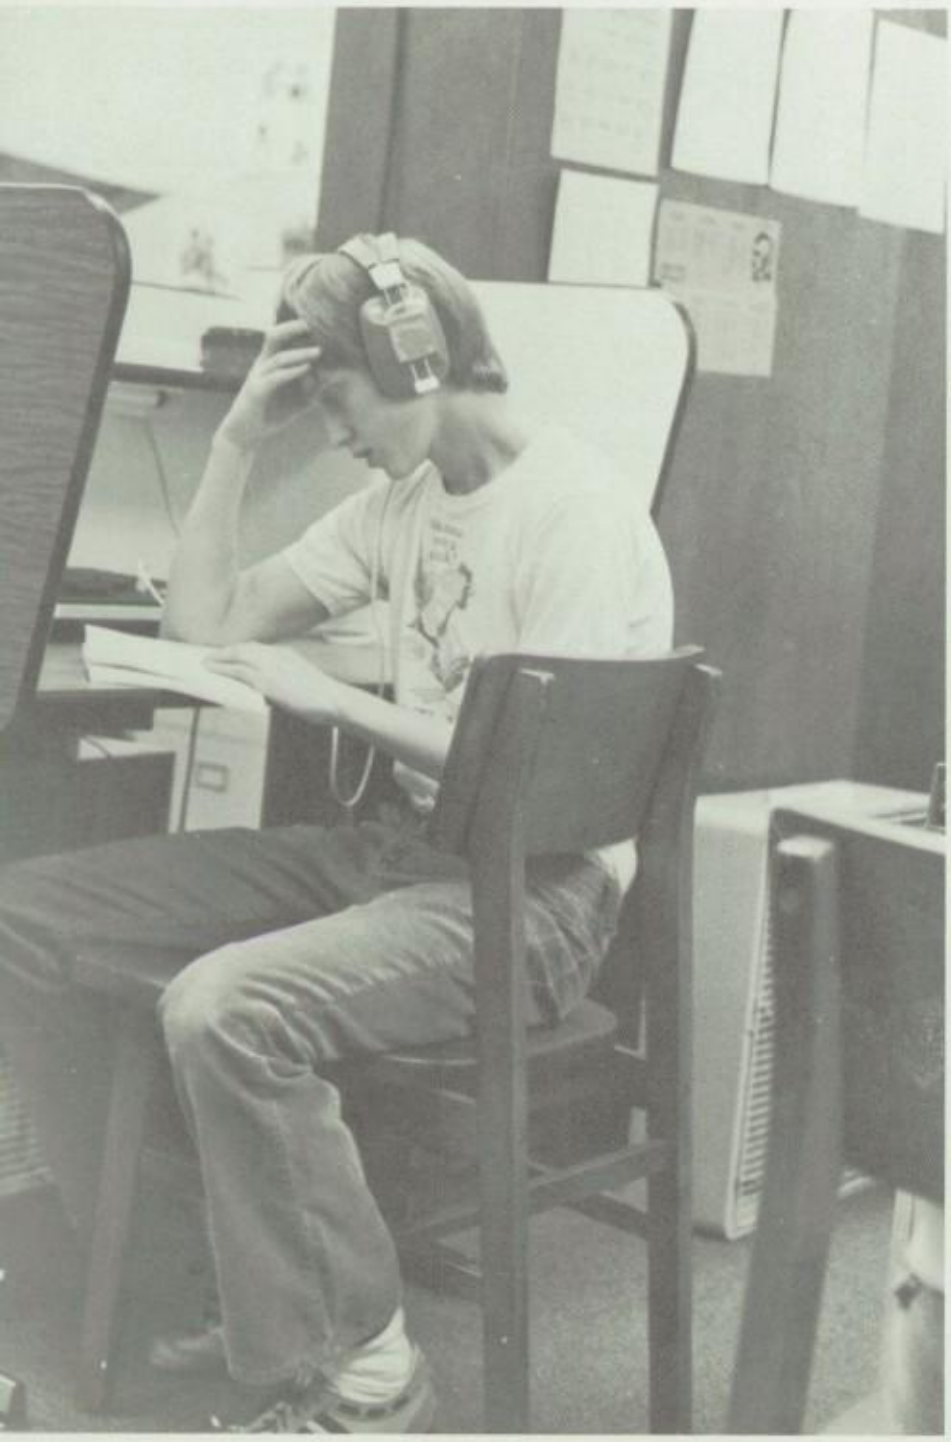


YALE?-Mr. Smith organizes another college transript to be sent.

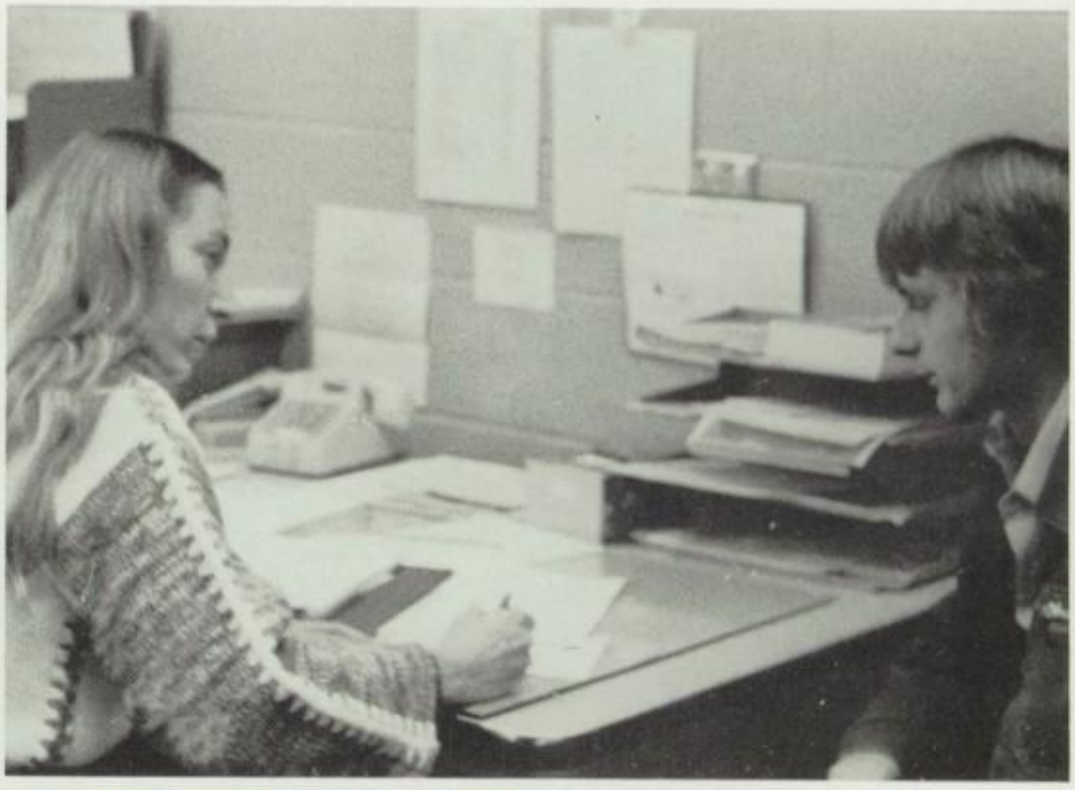
$X=Y^2$-Mr. Remington helps Larry Ries complete a difficult calculation while Dan Walters studies.

SHARING A LAUGH-Kathy Flynn and Roger Schumaker take time out to chuckle.

CONCENTRATION-Randy Grube listens closely to a story tape while following along in the book.



ALGEBRA? HISTORY?-Ms. Heidner and Scott Shackleton arrange next semester's course schedule.



WHERE SHALL I GO?-Mrs. Zwanziger and Holly Wilkins skim through college pamphlets.

HOW ABOUT THURSDAY?-Mrs. TenHaken and Londa Hill schedule an appointment.

Media Center steps out in the 80's

The media center has become a very important part of Mason City High School. The media center has a staff of seven people consisting of: Mrs. Opheim, Mr. Holt, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. Rood, Mrs. Kline and Mr. Kakacek. All of these people work hard at helping and assisting students and teachers. The media center is split into two parts, the non-print and print sections.

The non-print section of the media center offers lots to all, with over 600 video tapes for students and faculty to choose from. The non-print section also makes posters, transparencies and slide shows for teachers' use. In the fall the non-print section arranged a slide show of the boys' cross country team. They then presented it to the cross country team and their family members at the cross country banquet.

The print part of the media center has over 22,000 books and 126 magazines available. They keep the magazines for a period of five years. The print section of the media center also carries five sets of encyclopedias. They also subscribe to six newspapers, such as the Chicago and Minneapolis Tribune. These newspapers are used for current use and for the articles which are clipped out and placed in the vertical file for future use. Mrs. Opheim also stated, "I think we also have one of the best Masonian collections."

The media center has six small study rooms plus a larger study area. All the people at Mason City High School should take advantage of all the things the media center offers to them.

ON ANOTHER MISSION-Mr. Kakacek gets ready to deliver another piece of video equipment.

BUSY BODIES-Jody Walters, Dave Yarrow and Ted Wulfekuhler study in the media center.

COMFORTABLE POSITION-Dawn Dodg takes a comfortable position as she reads a boo in the media center.

MUSIC TIME-Mr. Holt takes a break away from his music.

INTERESTING READING- Bob Luedtke catches up on some interesting reading in the media center.

STUDY, STUDY, STUDY-Tim Meleney takes time out of his schedule to catch up on his studying.

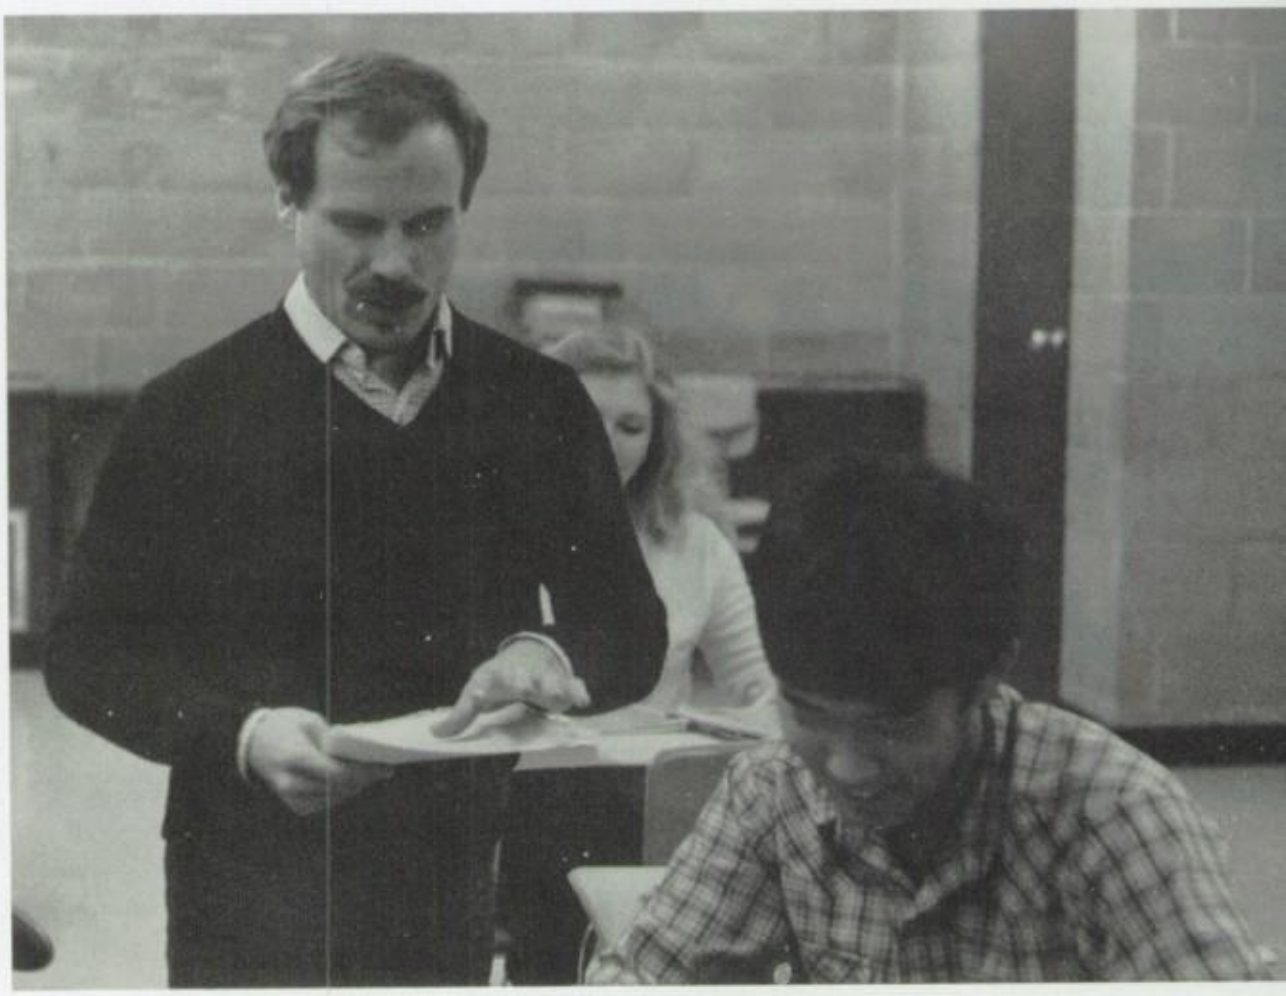
Students get involved in foreign languages

With the declining enrollment in the Mason City schools, students still have the opportunity to take foreign language courses. The three language courses offered at Mason City High School are French, taught by Doug Peterson; German, taught by Ed Gregory; and Spanish, taught by Diane Hanson and Elizabeth Baum.

The enrollment in these courses have been gradually increasing in the past few years, with this year having the most students in a long time. The reason for the increase could be because many colleges require some training in another language.

The students that wish to take four years of a language must start as freshmen. In the past the teachers would go to John Adams for the freshmen classes. With the 9th grade being in the high school, next year the teachers can teach all of their classes in one building.



"JA, ICH VERSTEHE!"-Herr Gregory teaches a new lesson to junior Ken Song.

"WHAT SHOULD WE DO NEXT?"-Melba Sweetman, Roger Mellman, Dave Johnson, and Diana Wilson learn a new lesson in French.

"SE HABLA ESPANOL?"-Paul Sampson takes a moment to select the correct verb tense.

Driver Ed. students prepare for the roads

Drivers education is very important to many Mason City High School students. Most students can't wait until they get their driver's license but there's more to driving than just getting in a car and driving away. First a person must take the course, which is required before graduation. The three teachers of the course are Charles Patridge, Don Siefken and Paul Strathman.

The class meets every other day to watch films on driving and listen to lectures. Once every six days the student has the opportunity to drive with the instructor. There are three automobiles used by the driver's education department, so the students can get the experience of different size cars.

Something that is highly stressed in this course is what can really happen in car accidents. Automobile accidents are one of the leading causes of death to teenagers.

BACK SEAT DRIVING-The back seat is a familiar view for most driver education students.

"FASTEN YOUR SEATBELTS!"-Mr. Strathman gets ready for another drive with Jamie Lee.

"WHICH WAY SHOULD I TURN?"-Jennifer Church seems a little confused as Mr. Strathman looks on.

CREATIVE ARTS

Masonian staff captures year

This year's Masonian staff, headed by co-editors Sue Daleske and Ruth Quintero, attempted to produce a book which was representative of the entire school year and all students at MCHS.

Staff members worked hard selling advertising, selling books, doing layouts, writing copy, and producing photos.

This year the staff sold over 1,000 books, finished in the black, and prepared for the next year's book which will include four grades.

The staff spent hours after school, during school, and vacations working to meet deadlines.

Adviser Paul Peterson stated, "We hope this year's book will prove interesting because the staff tried to include a wide variety of people and interests."

Next year's staff will be faced with the challenge of adapting the book to include the people and activities of a four year high school. The book will undergo a number of changes and alterations.

SECTION EDITORS- Front row: Ann Mitchell, Margie McCabe, Colleen Mahoney, Second Row: Jim Finneman, Phil DeVries, Christie Zanios, and Bruce Hugo.

OH MY, YES!- Seniors Bev Simmonds and Mindy Masters check out some senior photos.

Paper strives to inform, interpret, entertain

The "Mohawk Press", the weekly student paper, was produced under the direction of adviser Paul Peterson.

The purpose of the paper was to inform, entertain, and persuade the students and school community.

Readership extended to all schools in the district and included exchanging papers with thirty other high schools from across the country.

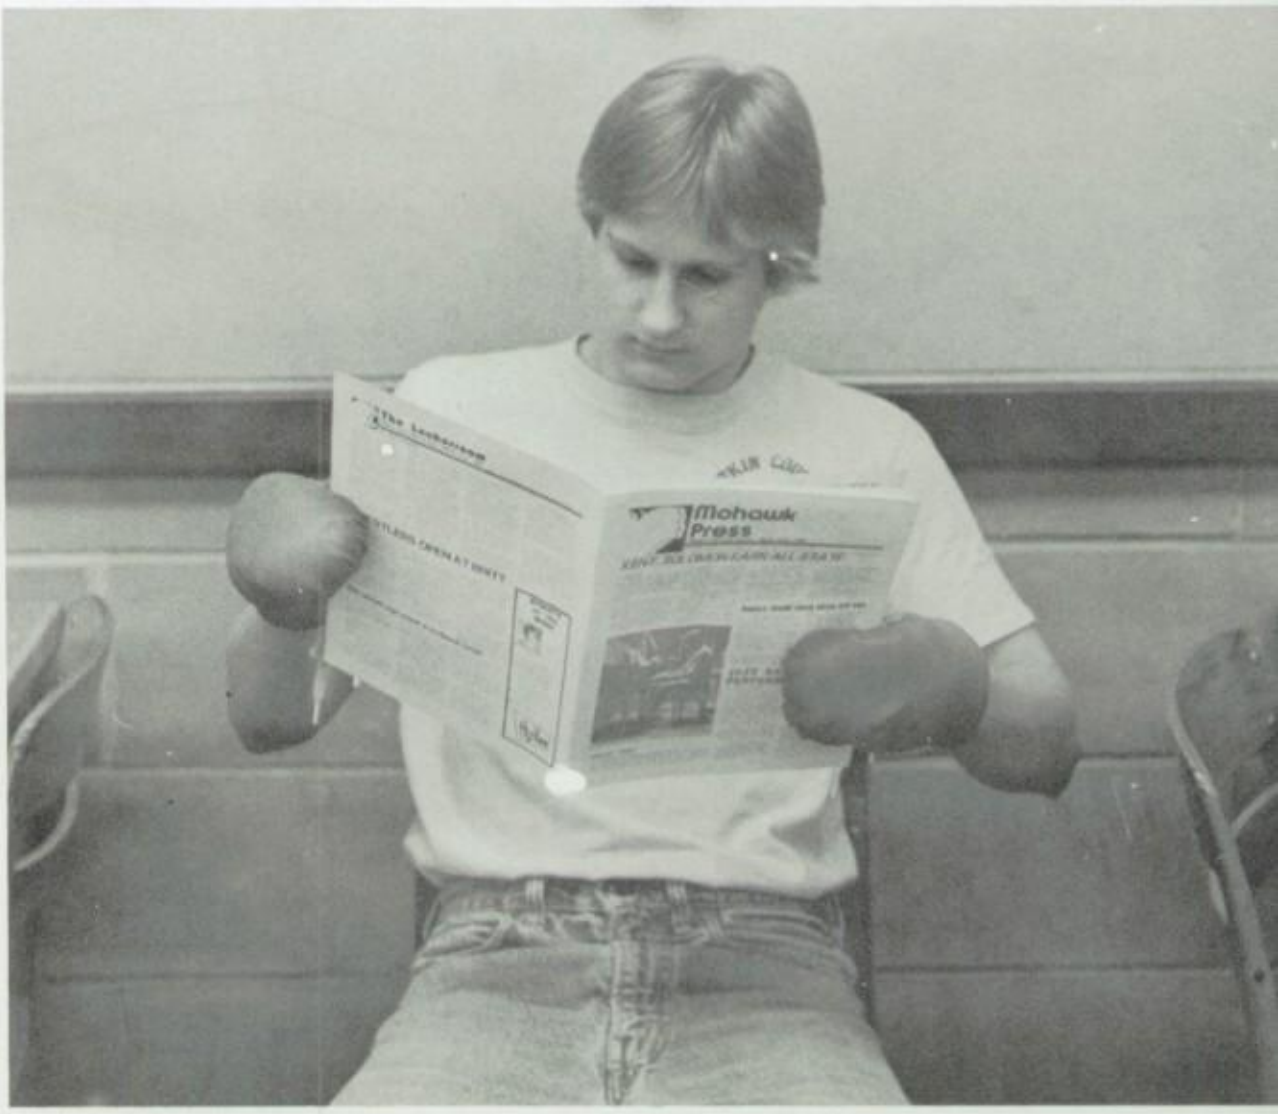
Senior Matt Hof served as editor of the publication which produced a record 35 issues through the year.

Students on the staff spent the year writing copy, taking photos, doing layouts, selling ads and working on various other aspects of the paper.

Approximately sixty students worked on the publication during the year.

The paper is a member of the Iowa High School Press Association, Quill and Scroll, the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The staff will return several good members.



A REAL HOT ITEM - Junior Brad Nielson reads through the paper hot off the press.

'Up the Down Staircase', fall play

The Mason City High School Educational theatre presented its fall play on November 7 and 8 in the North Iowa Auditorium on the NIACC Campus.

The play "Up The Down Staircase" was a humorous, sometimes heartbreaking story evolving around Sylvia Barrett, who begins her first teaching job, bringing with her new concepts about teaching and ways of applying them to her students.

With the help of Beatrice Schachter, the teacher from upstairs, and her friend-pen-pal Ellen, she teaches the rest of the faculty that students are people too.

Complications arise, and Sylvia is swept into the middle. She tires to help her students to learn, and attempts acception by the other faculty members.

Mr. David Giese was the director of the play, and was assisted by Bob Brookhart, Mindy Hartman, Leanne Pross, Kevin Smith, and Holly Wilkins.

Diana Wilson as Sylvia Barrett

Patti Heminger as Beatrice Schachter

Jim Finneman as Paul Barranger

Laurie Pross as Alice Blake

Dave Collison as Joe Ferone

Chris Wilson as Ellen

Also appearing in the cast were Scott Sandage, Scott Walsh, John Williams, Gina Lee, Jennifer Allen, Bruce Stasch, Tom Owens, Christie Zanios, Valerie Oswald, Mark Anthony, Sue Scheele, Anita Flores, Ann Heiny, Mary Middleton, Jay Yanda, Lawana Good, Mindy Masters, Marty Clough, Denise Martin, Jane Heffern, Beth Reynolds, JoLisa Stream.

Mr. Giese read over one hundred titles to pick two plays for the school year. He had read "Up The Down Staircase" many times and had enjoyed it. The Chamber Players had also performed a click of the play for a group of retired people and it had been well received, so, it was decided to try it here for our students.

"Up The Down Staircase" is a difficult play to perform, "especially for the students playing the pupils. It is hard to come out of your own identity and go into the characters. I feel the students did a good job of getting into their roles." replied Mr. Giese. He also felt that many of the students seemed to 'shout out' that they were outstanding in their acting, and the whole cast performed well.

Many of the students who saw the play, felt it was well performed.

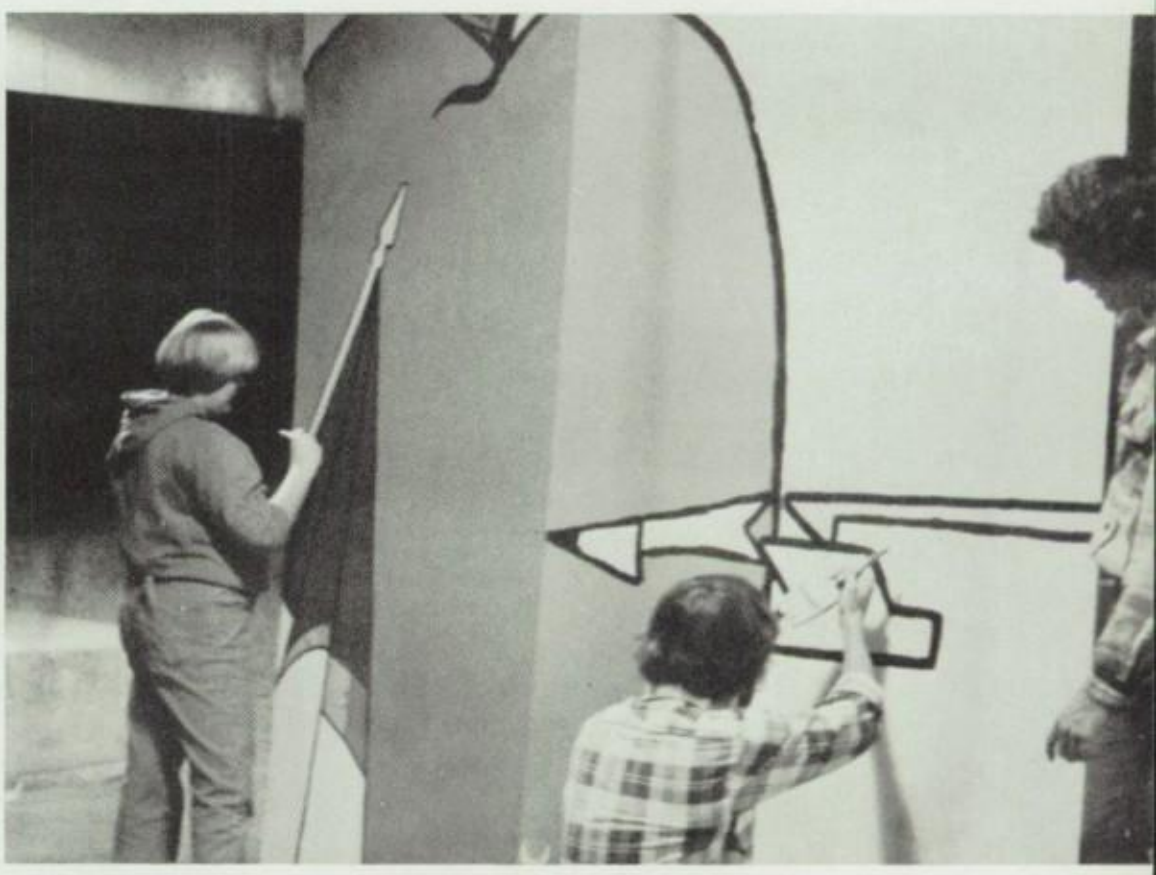
"WHAT DO YOU CARE?"-Diana Wilson as Sylvia Barrett tries to tell Joe Ferone, played by Dave Collison, that she cares what happens to him.

"YOU WHAT?!"-Dave Collison, Marty Clough, Laurie Pross, Sue Scheele, Mary Middleton, and Mindy Masters look on as Ann Heiny shows them Alice Blake's love letter to Paul Barranger.

"DID YOU KNOW?"-Rachel Gordon, played by Lawana Good, gossips while in class.

WHO NEEDS RULES?-Diana Wilson as Sylvia Barrett listens as Mr. McHabe, played by John Williams, tells her that he caught Joe Ferone breaking a few rules.

"THE LINE IS ..."-Mr. Giese discusses Sue Scheele's lines as Dave Collison, Marty Clough and Ann Heiny listen.



CONSTRUCTION CREW-Shawn Hoenfield, Roy Westfall, and Eric Schmidt help work on the set construction for the play.

THE WALLS HAVE EARS-Diana Wilson and Patti Heminger discuss their problems, as Anne Groth, Scott Sandage, and Gina Lee listen in.

Fourth Row: Eric Merritt, Brian Boyer, Bob VanEvery, Bev Simmonds, Scott Sandage, Tom Corley, Dave Collison.

Chamber Players is a choral and theatre reading group chosen by audition in the spring of the previous school year. This year Chamber Players performed in many contests and a tournament at UNI. They also performed for the North Iowa Shrine Club and their annual concert for the Friends of the Library. Under the supervision of advisor, David Giese, they participated in the Iowa High School Speech Association district.

Thespians are students who appeared in two plays or made a significant contribution to the production of a play. Thespians sponsor two trips to the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis. Last summer they attended the International Theater Arts Conference in Muncie, Indiana. The Thespian Advisory Board includes: Tom Corley, Jim Finneman, Anne Groth, Mindi Hartman, Ann Heiny, Mary Middleton, Laurie Pross, and Kevin Smith. Thespians are a member of the Honor Society.

EMPHASIS IN ACTION-Brian Boyer, Holly Wilkins, and Mindy Masters emphasize their reading.

Students decide to speak or not to speak

Many students participated in speech events this year. By giving speeches in individual events and debate, each student obtained points to go towards becoming a member or advancing in degrees in National Forensics League. NFL is an honor society which sponsores the Mohawk Oral Interpretation Festival. and a debate tournament in November. A district tournament is held in February and in order to speak there, a person must be a member of the club. The number of entries for the tournament depend on the number of advanced degrees. This year there was the maximum number of entries. Members of the National Forensics League's advisory board include: Scott Sandage, Jennifer Allen, Jody Schmidt, Nina Eichmann, Caroline Kiss, Chris Boozell, and Holly Wilkins.

The debate team had a successful year. The first tournament of the season, held at Waverly, set the tone for the team. They won five of the nine trophies presented. The team participated successfully and has trophied at the following tournaments: the Mohawk Tournament, South Winneshiek, Hampton, Britt, Emmetsburg, Charles City, and Fort Dodge. District competition included Iowa High School Speech Association, National Forensics League, and Iowa Forensics League.

This year's resolution was, "Resolved: That the federal government should initiate and enforce safety guarantees on consumer goods."

"Each group brings a unique quality to the team. This year's team was known for their enthusiasm," said Mrs. Huygens.

This year there was a new addition to the speech club. A Mime Troupe with six members was formed. These people must try out every year. The name of the group is E=(MC)2 which means Entertainment equals the Mason City Mime Company. They performed in the Mohawk Follies. Other performances were at state large group contest and other speech tournaments.

Orchestra produces quality group

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Root, was smaller this year with thirty-five members. The size didn't have any affect upon their performances. "It's not the quantity, it's the quality that counts," stated Mr. Root.

The string orchestra rehearsed daily, with band members joining them twice a cycle to complete the orchestra.

They worked to prepare high quality literature and featured student soloists in performances.

They gave a winter concert in December and a spring concert in May.

This year's orchestra yielded eight All-Staters from the strings, and three from the winds.

Lettow directs band into new era

The 1980-81 year saw a switch in directors for the Symphonic Band. Director Gil Lettow became director of bands when Mr. Robert Dean accepted a position at the University of Northern Iowa supervising student teachers.

Associate Director of bands for eight years, Lettow started his new job with some well executed performances by the marching band and newly added guidons. The band's public performances included the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert and the State Solo and Ensemble Contest. This year ten people were chosen as All-Staters and played in the All-State Concert in Ames, Iowa.

The band's annual popcorn sales went over well with the money raised going to the band's travel fund.

"The seniors have been great during this year of transition," commented Lettow about the year with one of his familiar "Hey Guys!"

The band will undergo another transition, when the ninth grade will be added to the current format next year.

Music area undergoes changes during year

With Mr. Lettow gaining the new position of Director of Bands, Mr. Whitlock was busy with the Jazz and Concert bands, part of his new position as Associate Director of Bands. "I feel very fortunate to be working with such fine students, faculty, and administration." stated Mr. Whitlock. There were many changes while keeping the fine tradition of Mason City Bands.

The Jazz band went to contest and highlighted their year with the Dimensions in Jazz Concert, with the Iowa State University Wind Ensemble as guest.

The Concert Band, which prepares students for Symphonic Band, also worked hard to ready themselves for their concert in May.

The Guidons were a new addition to the Marching Band, serving as precision flag twirlers. "I was happy with the new dimension they added to the Marching Band," commented Mr. Lettow.

The addition of the Guidons and transition from one director to another proved to be a smooth one that continued the fine traditions already established at the high school.

Barbershop Chorus joins choir groups

The 1980-81 Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Ron Phillips had another great year. The choir is comprised of juniors and seniors selected by Phillips in the spring of the previous year from auditions. The choir was a little smaller in size this year because of Phillip's preparation for the arrival of the freshmen next year.

Some of the choir's appearances included: the fall concert, spring concert, the Mohawk Follies, and all-state. The choir also made its biannual overnight trip this year.

This year a Barbershop Choir was formed and directed by Mr. Paul Wigley. The Barbershop Choir was a totally new concept for the music area. This was a volunteer group put together just because of the demand for such a group. Their debut performance was for the River City Barbershop Chorus. They also performed in the Mohawk Follies and attended the Festival/Contest at Denison, Iowa.

Groups perform for the community

As in the past Mohawk Chorale has been involved in many community services this year. The group has performed before various clubs and organizations.

The Chorale is under the direction of Mr. Ron Phillips and is composed of 24 students selected the previous spring.

The group also performed in the annual Mohawk Follies and gave a spring concert.

The year the Chorale received new costumes.

Members utilize the ability to communicate with not only their voices, but also through the use of body movement and facial expression.

The Varsity Choir was a newly formed group this year which had been added since the dropping of the Treble Choir. The group performed on various occasions and was comprised of juniors and seniors.

Sophomores make big sounds

This year the Mixed Chorus included ninty-seven members and performed under the direction of Mr. Paul Wigley.

Mixed Chorus and Sophomore Singers provided participants with good experience and allowed students an opportunity to develop the talent needed to continue the excellent tradition in the vocal music department for years to come.

The chorus performed a wide variety of music throughout the year that included pop, classical, Baroque, and others.

The Chorus also participated in the Christmas Concert held at the North Iowa Community College Auditorium and in a spring concert.

Other performances included the Good Shepard Nursing Home, Senior Chamber of Commerce.

Some individuals also gave solo performances at these events.

Mr. Wigley was pleased with the large number of participants and also indicated that he enjoyed working with these groups because he was able to hear these singers progress throughout the year as their voices matured.

These groups enhanced the various programs where they performed throughout the year.

NOW THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT-The Sophomore Singers perform at a local church.

SPORTS

Dodge leads girls to successful season

The Mohawk girls softball team fought their way to an impressive 21-9 record for the 1980 season.

The team was led by senior Dawn Dodge who was selected for the fifth team all-state squad picked by the Iowa High School Girls Athletic Union.

Dodge compiled a 21-9 record with 195 strikeouts in 198 innings of pitching.

Dodge did not give up a homerun during the entire season and also led the team in hitting with a .460 batting average.

Others batting over .300 included; Patti Blackmer, Liz Chavez, Penny Seidel, Laura Williams, and Cassie Warner.

Head coach Joe Campbell directed the team in its second season and was assisted by Tim Swyter.

During the second season the team added a number of games with more experienced teams and managed to look very respectable.

Next year's squad should have an excellent nucleus of athletes to build on and the team should continue to improve.

THE WIND UP- Senior Dawn Dodge begins her wind up during one of her 21 wins.

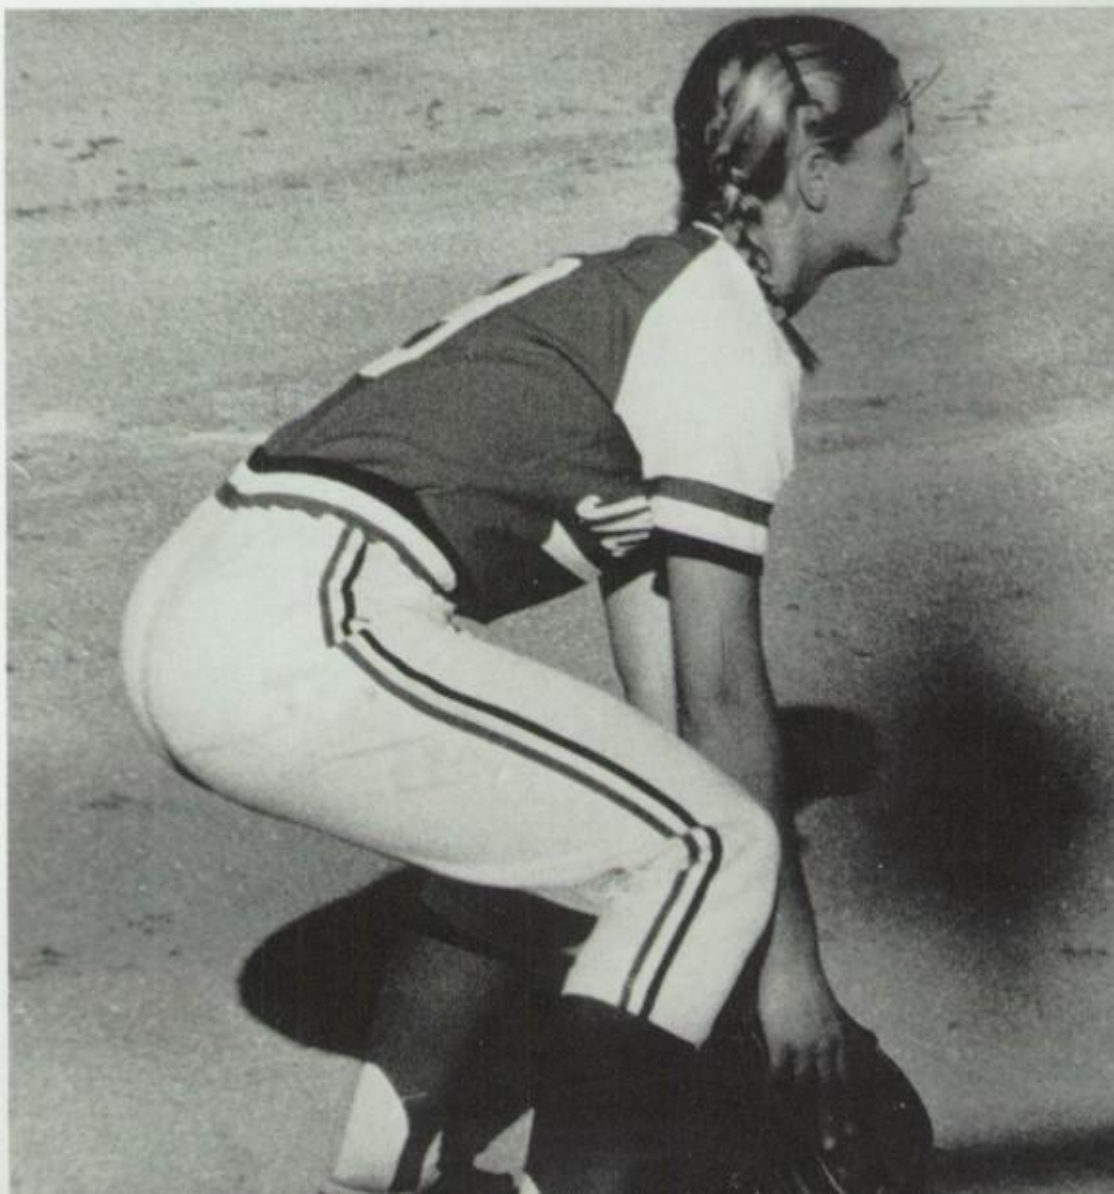
READY AND WAITING- Lori Dahlquist is ready to field whatever comes her way.



VARSITY SOFTBALL TEAM-Front Row: Lori McIlrath, Sarah Quam, Tara DiGregorio, Debbie Rumley, Lori Cornick, Cassie Warner, Penny Seidel, Sheila Grein. Second Row: Joan Opheim, Dawn Dodge, Brenda Losey, Laura Williams, Karen Jurasek, Denise Williams, Lori Dahlquist, Kim Matheson. Third Row: Coach Sweeter, Karen Bottorff, Penny Arnold, Liz Chavez, Sherry Lewis, Kim Arhart, Patti Blackmer, Pat Leslie, Luanne Peterson, Jennifer Church, Coach Campbell.

SWINGIN' AWAY- Cassie Warner prepares to meet the ball head on during a game with Newman.

TEAM CONFERENCE- Members of the infield gather on the mound to discuss strategy for the next batter.

Mohawks share conference crown

Second year coach Bob Bye directed the Mohawks to an impressive 7-2 season.

Although they missed the play-offs by little more than a point, their 6-1 conference record proved to be good enough for a tie for first place with Marshalltown.

The Mohawks as usual possessed a strong running attack led by senior Dick Killpack who rushed for 779 yards.

Junior John Brandt also provided 430 yards rushing and should provide experience for next year's squad.

Mike Cannella led the aerial attack with 567 yards. The senior quarterback pitched 328 of these to Art Barragan, the team's leading pass catcher.

Senior Rod Knudtson also accounted for 162 yards in receptions.

First team all-state guard and linebacker Ed Kent led a stingy defense with 107 tackles for the season.

Kent Porter, defensive safety, was second in tackles with 75.

The Mohawks provided a lot of entertainment for their followers, as many of the games were decided by a narrow margin.

The opening game of the season set the tone for the year as the Mohawks opened with an overtime victory over their Minnesota rival.

The game also marked the first time that the stadium had been used for a football contest.

The Mohawks again dominated all-conference selections by placing eight on the first and second teams.

First team picks included: Todd Krieger at tackle, John DeVary at center, Ed Kent at guard, Dick Killpack at running back, Rick Cone at end, and Jon Mariner at tackle.

Second team selections were Art Barragan at end and Jeff Pappas at nose guard.

Senior Ed Kent was also honored by being selected to First Team All-State status by the Iowa Daily Press Association.

Todd Krieger and Dick Killpack also received honorable mention.

The Mohawks will return a number of players next year who saw considerable action and gained valuable experience.

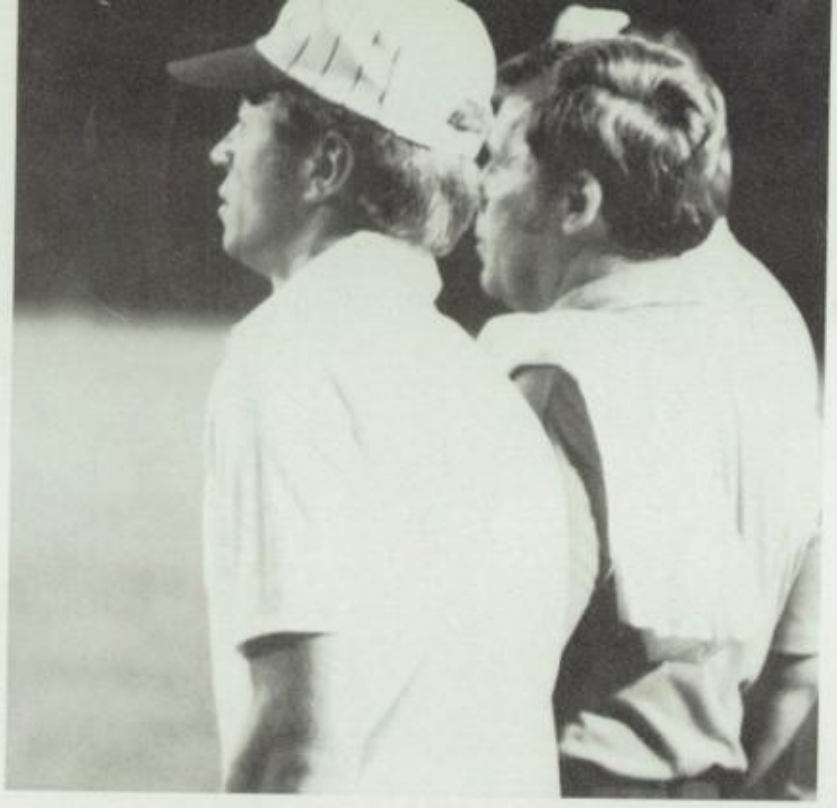
These players coupled with a number of strong prospects off this year's sophomore squad should provide the nucleus of another good squad next year.

This year's squad will be remembered as one that relied upon team work and group effort.

Coach Bye summed up the season's efforts by saying, "A super group of guys set and accomplished their goals."

COME ON GUYS-Nathan Hull casts an expectant gaze towards the scoreboard.

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM-Front Row; Tim Sahr, Jay Bloomfield, Paul Bartelt, Art Barragan, Jon Alexandres, Jeff Dahlquist, Brad Nielsen, Keith Butters, Kent Porter, Chris Piper. Second Row; Rick Schlie, John Eggers, Paul Jolas, Mike Cannella, Larry Rumley, Todd Hartwell, Nathan Hull, Dean Howell, Dick Killpack, John Brandt, Dave Copenhaver. Third Row; Rod Knudtson, Steve Dostart, Bill Oglesby, Terry Michaelsen, Dave Bonnstetter, Coach Rood, Coach Bye, Coach Lenius, Coach Tesch, Keith Sims, Stephan Berglin, Bruce Hugo, Paul McFalls, Bruce Kittleson. Fourth Row: Jon DeVary, Ed Starks, Scott Olson, Rich Edwards, Jon Mariner, Kurt Percival, Marc Johnson, Felix Ruiz, Ed Kent, John Burnett, Brian Pierce, Kevin O'Neil, Matt Hof. Fifth Row; Todd Krieger, Rick Cone, Dave McCollum, Walt Smith, Mike Carter, Craig Peterson, Kirk Kral, Larry Lunstrum, Jon Lofing, Tom Corley, Jim Shill, Jeff Pappas, and Phil DeVries.



MOHAWK MENTORS- Mr. Bye and Mr. Lenius anxiously await the next play.

The sophomore football squad took on a new look this season as Ray Reasland became the new head sophomore coach.

Reasland was assisted this year by Mike Rezab and Don Coe.

The team had a final record of 4-5 and gained good experience for the future.

Quarterback Eric Thompson led the offense and passed for 577 yards in 34 attempts.

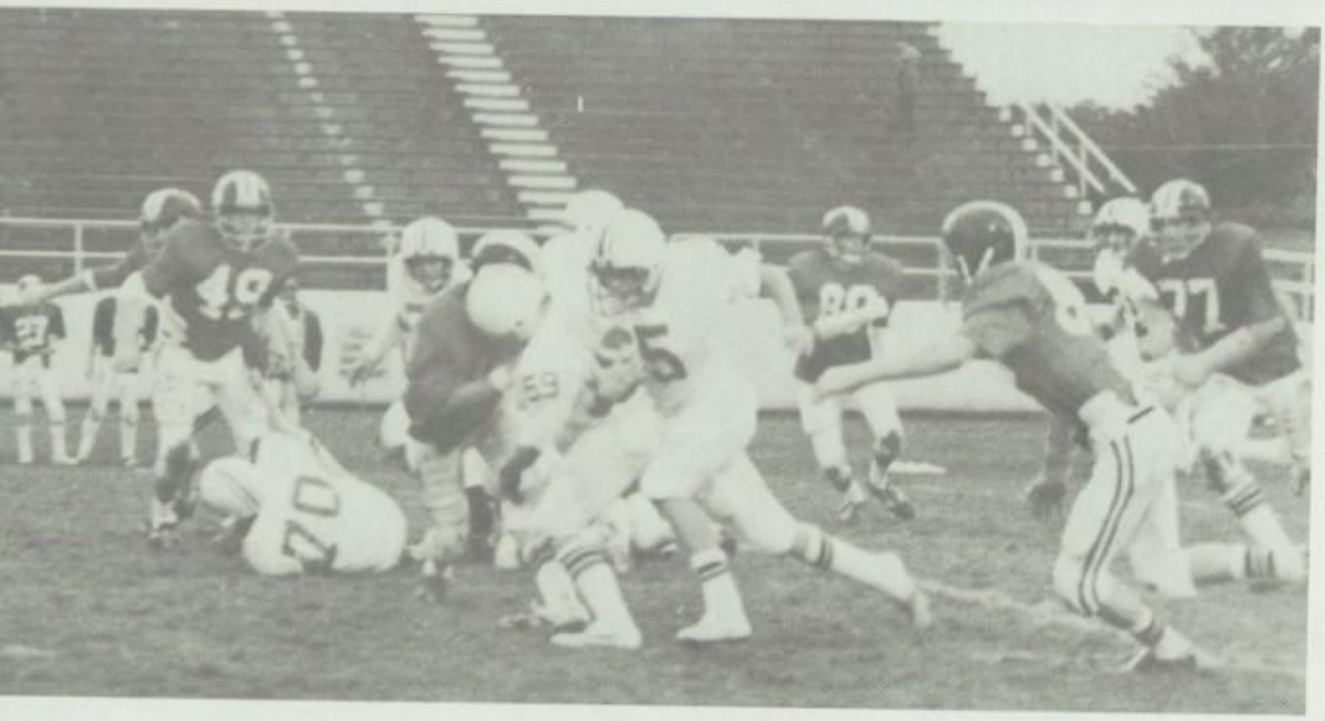
Brian Jenkins set a school record for rushing with 1,007 yards in 178 carries during the sophomore campaign.

Big play makers for the defense were Jeff Kleven with 77 tackles and Ward Isaacson with 76 tackles.

Coach Rezab said that he was pleased with the offensive line who did a good job of opening up holes for the backs.

The main men on the line were Philip Collins, Bill Petersen, Jay Dorenkamp, Dave Lane, and Danne Thomas.

These people and others should promise to help next year's squad.



NICE HOLE-Sophomore quarterback Dave Johnson runs behind his blockers for a big gain.

The Girls Cross Country team under Coach Gene Balk finished the season with a 4th place finish at the Big Eight meet at Ames. The fourth place is the highest in the Mohawks short history as a team. Although Senior standout Roxanne Peterson was sidelined because of pulled tendons in her heel the Mohawks still had a good year. Next year Coach Balk expects to have 15 of 19 returning letterwinners to restrengthen the team. Team leaders this year were Sophomores Tracy McIlrath, Julie Hugo, Kathy Decker and Seniors Devon Roberts and Sonny Monson.

The Mohawk Harriers completed their season with a 2nd place finish in the Big Eight. Placing 2nd in the Big Eight was the highlight of the season as last year they placed fourth. The Mohawks were led by Seniors Greg Bahl, Steve Rose and Junior Bill Johann. The Harriers will suffer next year due to the loss of 7 letterwinners. Returning next season for the Harriers will be Terry Dresbach, Bill Johann and Jon Menges.

LEADING THE PACK-Senior standout Greg Bahl starts off another run.

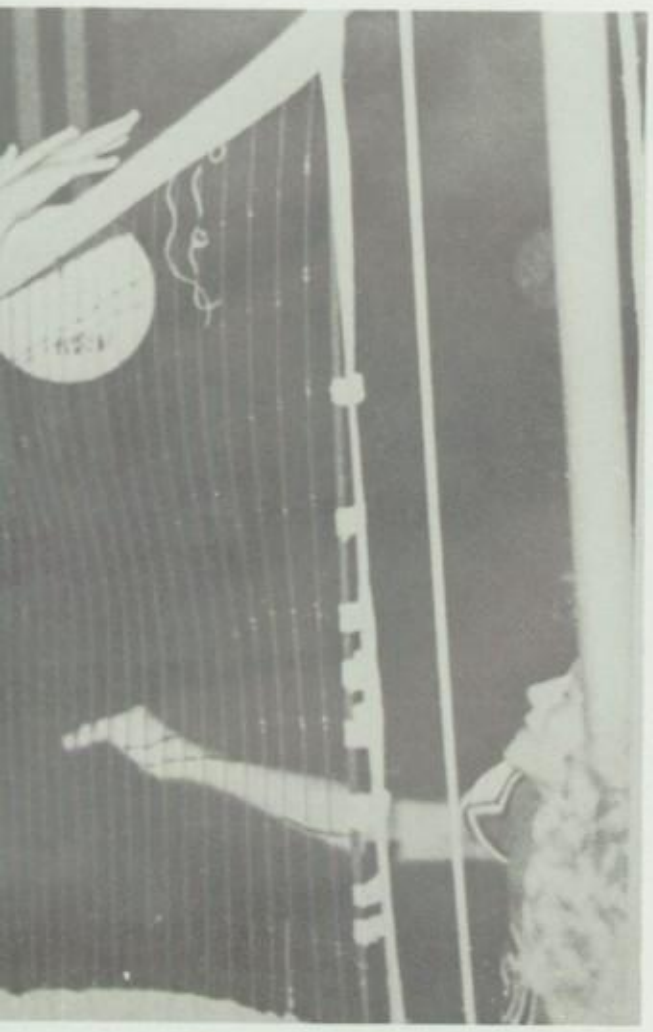
Volleyballers make state a habit



The strong volleyball tradition continued this season as the girls made their way to state for the tenth time under coach Alice Phillips guidance.

Within the season, the spikers hustled their way past all the conference teams to post a record of 32-8-5. The girls proved how power volleyball should be played by winning two invitationals tournament: Columbus and Osage Invitationals.

"I thought the season was well balanced," commented Phillips.

Nine letterwinners helped the spikers overcome all teams at sectionals and had at attacking offense to become District Champions. The victory qualified them to the State Volleyball meet held in Des Moines.

Lori Cornick reflected, "It was a really fun season. The team worked hard, but I was disappointed that we didn't go farther at state."

Anne Balk and spiker Tina Solomon drew praise from Coach Phillips alone with Cassie Warner, Pat Leslie, Deb Cameron, Mary Kramer, and Lori Dahlquist.

To sum up the season, Tina Solomon quoted, "We had a great teamwork and everyone was fired up. With the team being good friends, we could work together easily and we had a lot of fun."

Solomon was also named to the second team All-State squad selected by the Iowa High School Girls' Athletic Association.

LET'S GO TEAM- Alice Phillips, girls' volleyball coach, talks over strategy for her team's victory.

Frieden captures second crown

Junior Kristy Frieden again captured the 100 yard breastroke title at the state meet held in Iowa City at the University of Iowa pool.

Frieden reset her state record of last year with a time of 1:10.4 in the preliminary events.

Frieden also placed eleventh in the 200 yard I.M.

The whole team had an impressive season with a 9-1 dual record. The team also captured first place in the Columbus Invitational and finished third at district competition.

The team also improved their representation in the Big Eight Conference by finishing a strong third.

The future for the Mohawks also looks bright with Freshman Janelle Carolson returning next year.

Carlson set school records in the 200 and 500 yard freestyle events. She also placed thirteenth in the 500 yard freestyle at state.

The 400 yard freestyle relay of Carl Carlson, Sharon Broghammer, Karen Ray, and Theresa Stream also made it to the state meet.

The relay broke the school record in the prelims with a time of 4:03.7.

MCHS GIRL TANKERS-Front row: Melba Sweetman, Jennifer Hof, Sue Huff, Linda Reuber, Lori Mahoney, Michelle Krieger, Chris Broghammer, Sarah Stocks, Janelle Carlson. Carlson captures two seconds at state

Although this year's boys swim team was a young one, it provided Mohawk swim fans with a lot of excitement throughout the season.

The team captured first place at the district level edging out conference rival Cedar Falls.

The team qualified six events for the state meet in Ames which included Dan Carlson, Brent Olson, Dan Weber, Mark Shadle, Steve Borger, and Bob Borger.

Carlson captured two second place finishes to cap an outstanding season which saw the junior win two championships at both the district and conference meets.

Carlson placed second in the Individual Medley with a time of 157.82 and repeated the second place finish in the 100 yard Butterfly in 52.79. Carlson's time in that event was just .45 of a second off the winning time.

The 200 yard Medley Relay of Brent Olson, Dan Weber, Dan Carlson, and Mark Shadle managed an eleventh place finish which gave the team a total of thirty points and a thirteenth place finish in the state meet.

Kennedy of Cedar Rapids won the meet with 149 points but the Big Eight Conference was well represented with Ames and Fort Dodge both finishing in the top ten in the state.

The team finished the dual meet season with a 3-3-1 record with wins over Charles City (twice) and Albert Lea. The team also tied West Waterloo.

Many of the swimmers spent long hours working out over the summer on their own in addition to practicing twice a day during the season. Frequently workouts included 7,000 yards or more of swimming in an evening.

Veteran Coach Willis Colville should have a lot to look forward to in next year's team as the team will lose only one senior, Randy Haskins, this year.

Carlson, Weber, Shadle, Olson, and the Borgers, should give the team a lot of experience and depth in a number of areas. Several other returning letterwinners will also add strength to the club.

LOOK, MA, NO HANDS- Tammy Miller contrates on her next move on the balance beam.

Both the boys' and girls' gymnastics squads enjoyed seasons which saw a number of younger team members contribute to their programs.

Although the girls' team lost standout Roxie Huffman for most of the season, the team earned a 5-2 dual record.

Several freshmen stepped forward to provide excellent performances throughout the season. Some of these were Ellen Forte, Becky Swale, Tammy Miller, and Linda Moeckley.

Both Forte and Swale advanced through the district competition held in Mason City to the regional meet.

Forte also broke the school record in tumbling with an 8.45 performance.

Victories for the year included wins over Albert Lea, Waverly, Central Waterloo, Marshalltown, and Iowa Falls.

Coach Jim Dloughy's squad provided fans with a number of exciting moments. From the looks of this year's squad fans will have quite a few to come.

The boys' squad, under the direction of Mr. Bruce Marzinski, saw a number of new faces out for the fall sport. Although the team had a limited schedule, many of the squad's members improved tremendously throughout the season.

Cagers finish 7-12 on the season

This year's varsity basketball squad finished the season with a 7-12 record and finished in a three way tie for sixth place in the conference. The team sported a 4-10 conference record.

Fort Dodge, one of the state powers, captured the conference crown with a 13-1 record.

Although the team did not have a winning record there were several bright moments for the team throughout the season.

These included victories over Ames, Central, East, and West Waterloo.

The team was led by senior center-forward Shawn Miles who averaged better than 15 points per contest throughout the season.

Miles scored a total of 275 points and was followed by senior guard Dean Howell who scored 204 points on the year.

Miles also led the team in rebounds with a total of 158. Senior John McManigal was second in rebounding with 105.

Howell led the team with 62 assists.

Miles also shot 50 percent from the field to lead the team in that category. Miles was also named to the first-team all conference squad for the Big 8.

Rod Ames led the team in free throw accuracy with a 72.1 percentage. As a team, the Mohawks made 60.8 percent of their free throws.

Seven different players started for the squad at various times throughout the season. These included Miles, John McManigal, Randy Jass, Dean Howell, Rod Ames, Mike Cannella, and Dave Richards. All seven were seniors.

The team will not return a lot of experience next season and it is expected to be a rebuilding year for Coach Dick Garth's squad. There will be no returning lettermen next season. All other conference squads will return at least one starter.

Garth praised the team for being very competitive in almost all instances but said the squad's biggest problem was in shooting. Garth stated, "The games we shot well we won. The games we didn't shoot well we lost."

Garth was also pleased with the team's overall attitude and hustle.

East Waterloo is expected to be a favorite in the conference as they will return five starters and a solid bench.

THE DRIVE-Senior Dean Howell drives the lane against state power Fort Dodge.

PUTTING ON THE PRESSURE-Seniors Rod Ames and Shawn Miles put the squeeze on a Dodger.

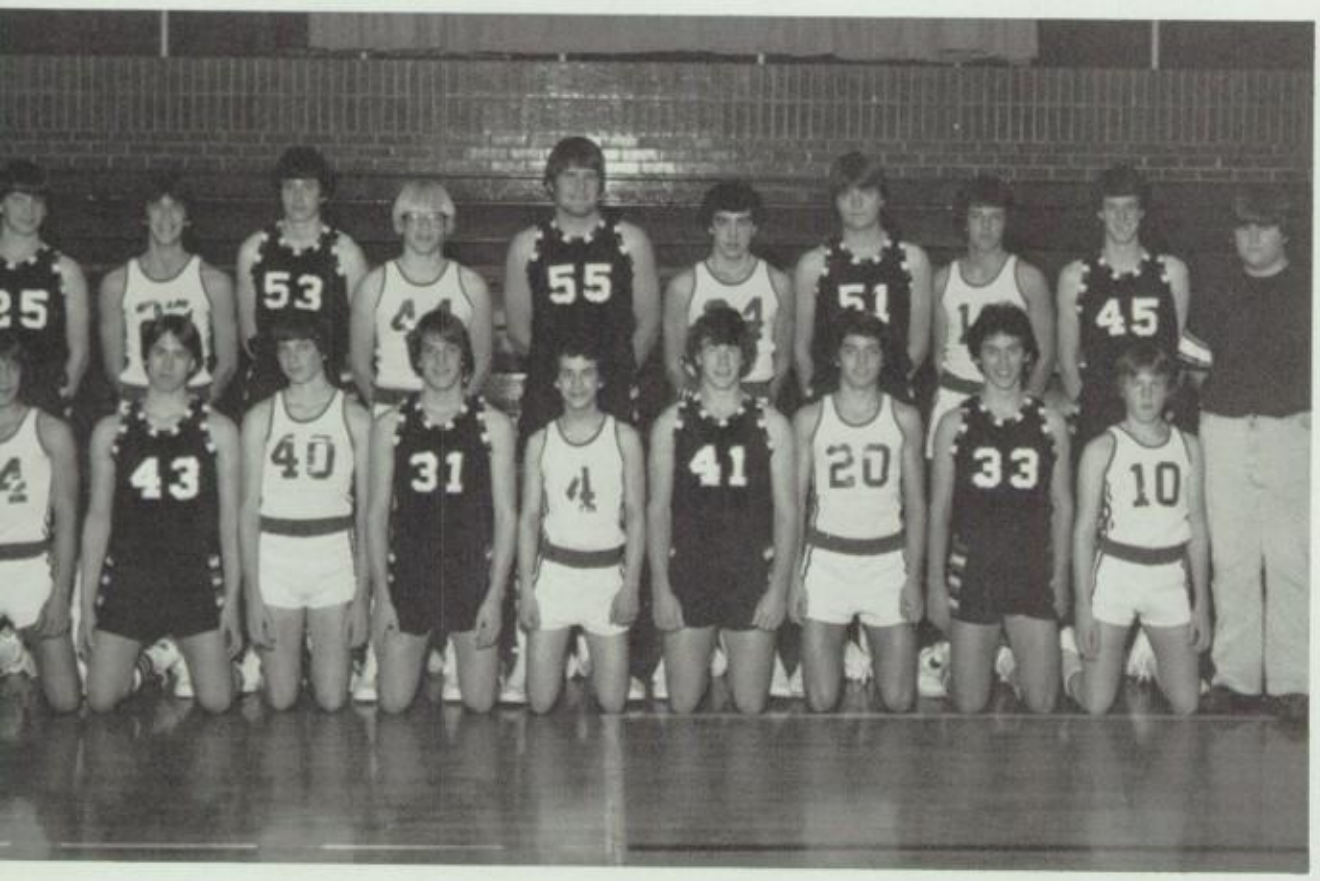
Second Row: Scott Hassenstab, Tim Long, Peter Halseth, Lance Pals, Phil Collins, Mark Gerdes, Eric Torgerson, Todd Godfrey, Tom Echelbarger, Bill Irwin.



The sophomore squad, under the direction of Coach Eldean Matheson, finished fourth in the conference with an 8-6 record. The team had an overall record of 10-8.

Eric Torgerson led the team in both scoring and rebounding. Torgerson scored 197 points throughout the season and pulled down 119 rebounds.

Torgerson shot 54 percent from the field for the season.

Other starters for the majority of the season were Scott Niver, Bill Hansen, Tim Long, and Phil Collins.

Niver was second in scoring on the year with 185 points.

Phil Collins' 81 rebounds placed him second in that department.

Fort Dodge, who also finished on top of the varsity conference, finished in first place in the sophomore standings with an 11-3 record.

This year's squad should contribute several members, who will see considerable action, to next year's varsity squad.

GUN IT- Sophomore Scott Niver shoots for two more points.

READY FOR THE OUTLET PASS-Sophomore Bill Hansen gets ready to pass the ball against Central's defense.

Girls share conference title

The girls' varsity basketball team enjoyed its most successful season since the beginning of the program in 1974.

This year's squad finished the season with an impressive 18-3 record and a co-championship in the Big Eight Conference.

Highlights of the season included beating Fort Dodge on their own court in the teams' second meeting to clinch a share of the championship. The win avenged an earlier loss in the season to the Dodgers.

Leading the Mohawks offense was senior first-team, all-conference selection, Tina Solomon. Solomon sported a flashy 23 point average throughout the season which was tops in the conference.

Rounding out the forward court for the Mohawks were seniors Anne Balk and Brenda Losey. Balk, a second-team, all-conference selection, averaged 14 points per contest for the season, while Losey had an 11 point average.

Senior Kim Arhart also saw considerable action throughout the year with several superior performances.

Senior guard Deb Cameron led the tough guard court for the Mohawks, Cameron, who was also named to the first-team, all-conference squad, broke the school record for rebounds with 293 for the season.

Other defensive starters for the squad included Cassie Warner and Liz Chavez. Sandi Nonnweiler also saw considerable time on the defensive end of the court.

Liz Chavez was the second leading rebounder on the squad and also had a remarkable 26 blocked shots to her credit.

The team averaged 13 steals per contest during the season and also out rebounded the opposition by a 2-1 margin.

The team, coached by Chuck Nichol, definitely has established itself as a conference power and can reflect on the many fine memories that this season will provide.

DOUBLE DRIBBLE-Senior Brenda Losey prevents a steal against Marshalltown.

Sophs provide support

This year's sophomore squad finished the season with a 7-11 record but more importantly gained the experience necessary to continue to improve and move to next year's varsity ranks.

The team was led in scoring by Jennifer Church who had a 14.2 scoring average per contest.

Lori Dahlquist was the second leading scorer on the squad with a 10.6 average.

Leading the team at the defensive end of the court was Shari Lewis who netted 115 rebounds and managed to block 37 of the opponent's shots.

Lewis also saw a little playing time with the varsity squad.

Suzette Blodgett had 50 steals on the season and was second in the rebounding department with 74.

Coach Ron Stroup's team also provided a lot of moral support for the varsity squad throughout the season. The team was responsible for firing up the varsity squad on a variety of occasions.

Wrestlers send six to state tourney

This year's wrestling squad had its share of ups and downs. Although the squad was plagued with injuries throughout the season, the squad sent six wrestlers to the state tournament in Des Moines.

This was the largest number of wrestlers ever to qualify for a team coached by Jerry Ray.

Stepleton placed third, Tim Krieger fourth, D.J. Kline fifth, and Todd Krieger fifth to give the team a finish in the top ten teams in the state.

Other highlights of the season included winning the Osage Quad, the Belle Plaine Tournament, and finishing second at districts.

The team posted a 5-5-1 record for its dual season with wins over Britt, East Waterloo, Central Waterloo, Clear Lake, and New Hampton. The team tied Ames.

The future looks bright for Coach Ray as a number of wrestlers will return next season in addition to state qualifiers Dan Ray, Tim Krieger, and Todd Krieger.

Track squads get early start

This year the boys and girls track squads enjoyed warm weather throughout February and March allowing the teams an opportunity to work outdoors instead of the customary months spent indoors or in the underground.

Coach Dave Long's boys team opened their season during the first week in March with a meet in the UNI Dome in Cedar Fall. The team made a good first showing placing seventh out of 17 squads.

Long expected the mile relay to be a top notch outfit and challenge the school's record set in 1970. The unit initially included Marc Johnson, Kit Ryan, Dick Killpack, and Terry Michealsen. This unit placed second at the initial meet with an excellent time.

Others expected to perform well throughout the season included senior distrance runner Greg Bahl, high jumper Marc Johnson, and pole vaulter Rod Knutdson.

The girls squad, under the direction of Coach Chuck Nichol, expected a good season also and sported a large number of returning letterwinners and some state qualifiers from a year before.

The girls did not open their season until later in the spring. The team had a variety of strengths including Big 8 distance champ Roxanne Peterson.

AROUND THE TURN-Pole vaulter Rod Knudtson and high jumper Marc Johnson workout on the new track.

MILE RELAY-This quartet of Marc Johnson, Dick Killpack, Terry Michealsen, and Kit Ryan was expected to threaten the school mile relay record.

STATE HOPEFULS-Front Row; Liz Chavez, Laura Williams, Deb Gonnerman, Second Row; Tina Solomon, Anne Balk, and Roxanne Peterson.

ONE MORE LAP-Senior Greg Bahl rounds the final corner on one more lap around.

Tennis and golf teams short on experience

With the exception of the girls tennis team, the tennis and golf squads prepared to face the season without a crew of veterans.

Matt Hof was the sole returning letterwinner in boys golf. The team lost junior standout Brad Wilhite when Wilhite's family moved to Kansas.

The only returning letterwinner in girls golf was Penny Arnold. The team faced the challenge of rebuilding after losing state champ Connie Carlson to graduation.

Carlson went on to play for the Iowa State Cyclones.

Senior Kent Porter and junior Scott Goodwin were the two returning letterwinners for the male netters.

Girls tennis had the largest number of returning letterwinners in seniors Jean Gerk, and Patty Porter, and junior Lori Cornick.

Members of these sports tried to stay in shape during the winter months and hoped to begin practice in early spring.

BOYS TENNIS-Returning letterwinners included Kent Porter and Scott Goodwin

BOYS GOLF-This year's only returning letterwinner was senior Matt Hof.

GIRLS TENNIS-Returning letterwinners included Patty Porter, Lori Cornick, and Jean Gerk.

GIRLS GOLF-Penny Arnold was the sole returning letterwinner for the girls team.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council strives and achieves

Student Council was active all year long. They also had a busy summer.

Members attended workshops, and held meetings.

The goal of the council was to make the 1980-81 year not only an active one but also successful.

The council was under a new format this year which eliminated class officers and had only student council officers.

The student council consists of 27 students. They worked hard on projects ranging from homecoming button sales to jersey sales.

The council was also very active in the annual Christmas Cheer Fund Drive.

President Kent Porter felt, "The scholarship program set up by the student council was student council's biggest contribution."

Mike Meehleder, student council advisor, summed the year up saying, "Another step down the road of providing a productive and effective student input into the policies and daily life of MCHS."

The senior planning committee is a group of seniors selected to help organize events for graduation.

Members of this year's committee included Janice Dahl, Anne Groth, Ann Heiny, Dick Killpack, Jodie May, Kent Porter, Tom Corley, Laurie Pross, and Matt Hof. The later five were placed on the committee as student council officers while the other five were selected by the senior class.

These people worked in conjunction with Dr. Bogard throughout the year preparing for the big day.

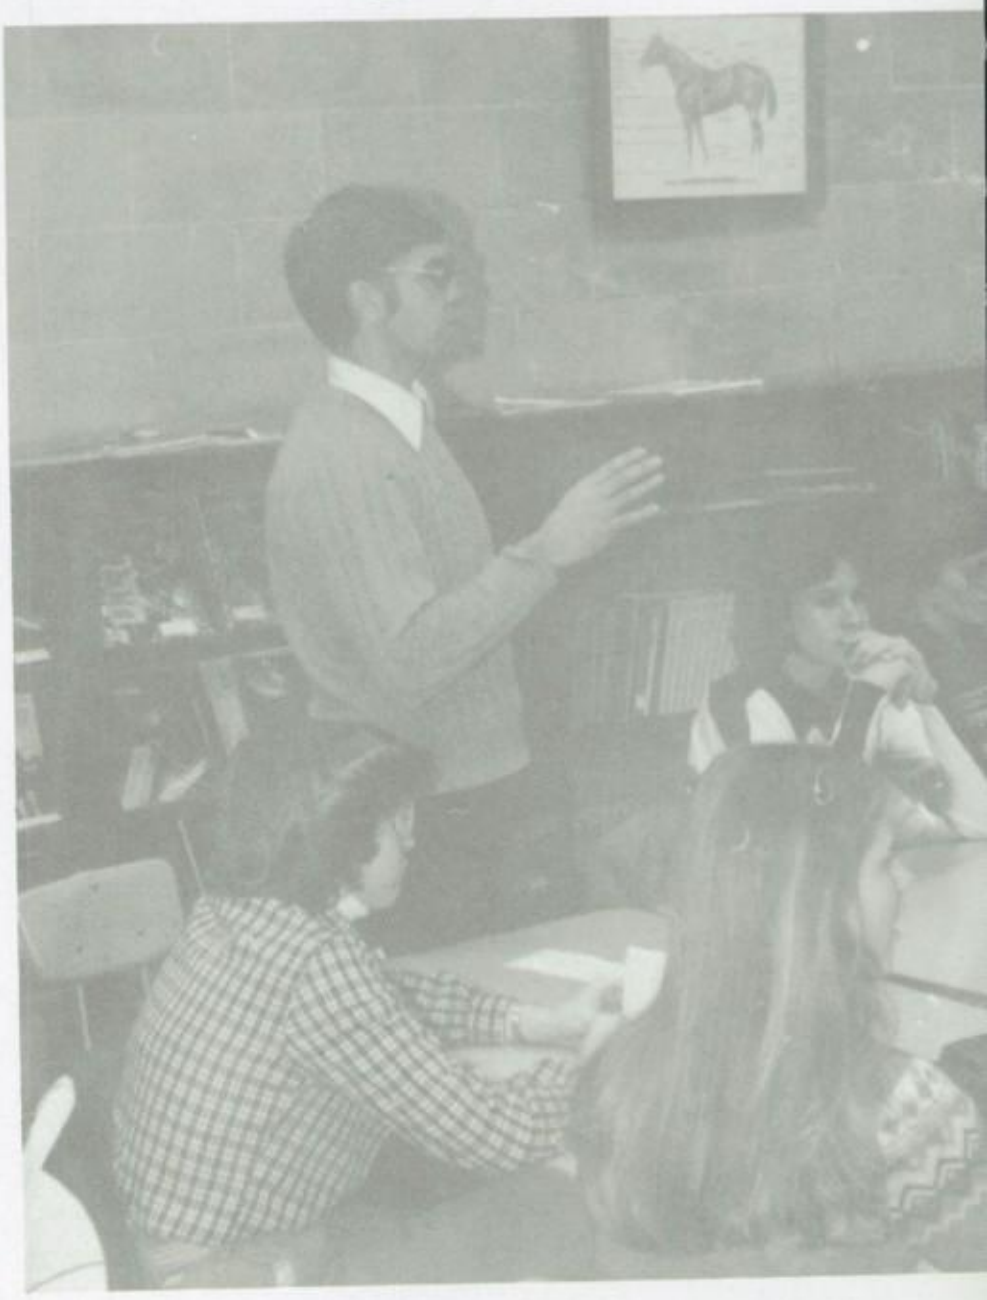
Students get involved in groups

The FFA Horseman's Club was involved in a multitude of different activities such as selling fruit, enjoying a hayride, a ski trip, and many parties for the members. The officers were: Julie Grimm, president; Julie Littleton, vice-president; Mary Sberal, secretary; Karen Jurasek, treasurer; Beth Ward, reporter; Cindy Bancroft, sentinel. The club was under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Shadle.

Directed by Mr. Meskel, the Mu Alpha Theta Math Club enjoyed a field trip to Iowa State and several math contests at various colleges. Officers of the club were: Sue Daleske, president; Ken Song, vice-president; Karen Brown, secretary-treasurer.

The Science Club had its fill of activities thoughout the year. In the fall, they visited the U.N.I. Science Symposium. In the winter, they went to the National Disease Lab. In the spring, they visited Chicago's Muesum of Science and Industry, the Shedd Aquarium and many other places. They also participated in the local science fair. The club officers were: Glen Thompson, president; Kevin Smith, vice-president; Ken Song, treasurer; Jennifer Allen, secretary. Mr. Vrba was the director of the group.



LISTEN UP!-The FFA members listen to their director, Mr. Shadle.

FFA Horseman's Club-Sonny Monsen, Julie Grimm, Theresa Driskell, Danny Marson, Cindy Bancroft. Deca and Health Club offer challanges

HEALTH CLUB- Front Row; Leona Heagel, Julie Kulhavy, Tammy Swank, Mari Rogers and Kay Kinvig. Second Row; Jody Schmidt, Jennifer Allen, Caroline Kiss, and Marja Lee.

Health Club was once again in full swing this year. Under the leadership of Mrs. Kinvig the girls looked into the types of health career fields in which they would like to enter.

This year the girls took a first aid class at the Red Cross and were certified in first aid.

They also participated in a CPR class and at the end of the year they took a field trip. They toured North Iowa Medical Hospital. They visited areas for Physical therapy, occupational therapy, respiratory therapy and surgery. The communications clerk showed the club the air terminal which is used to send prescriptions, medicines, and papers to all other stations in the hospital.

Being in Health Club can help a student decide which type of health career field they would like to enter.

DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) involves many students this year. Under the advisor, Paul Olson, the students were involved with activies for the school.

This year the club was divided into two different groups. First period class which had fifteen members and eighth period which had five members.

The Blue Club elected Ellen Schmidt as President and the Diamond Club elected Todd Hoffman as their President.

The club offers training in leadership abilities for students who are studying to be "future leaders of marketing and distribution."

Being involved in DECA, students can learn what happens in today's business world.

PRACTICING THE HEIMLICH- Juniors Jody Schmidt and Jennifer Allen practice the Heimlich maneuver.

EIGHTH PERIOD DECA- Front Row: Scott Behm, Todd Hoffman, and Rod Wastier. Second Row: Allen Shanks, Paul Olson and Bob Smith.

BUSINESS, BUSINESS, BUSINESS- Seniors Joel Morris and Rick Brunsvold have mixed feelings over Paul Olson's lecture.

MEASURING UP- Kay Kinvig and Marja Lee measure Mari Rogers during Health Club.

Organizations offer opportunities to grow

Mason City High School continued to offer students a variety of clubs and organizations to belong to during the school year. These included: Literary Club, International Club, Quill and Scroll, and Model UN.

The Literary Club, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Klussman, met throughout the year to discuss books and movies. Some of their selections included "Sticks and Stones" and "Harold and Maude."

Model UN studied and researched current events to help students understand world wide affairs. The group sponsored a dance and participated in state wide activities. Mr. Jerry Tieszen directed the group.

Mr. Jim Smith, MCHS counselor, helped revive the International Club which also strived to help students understand the world.

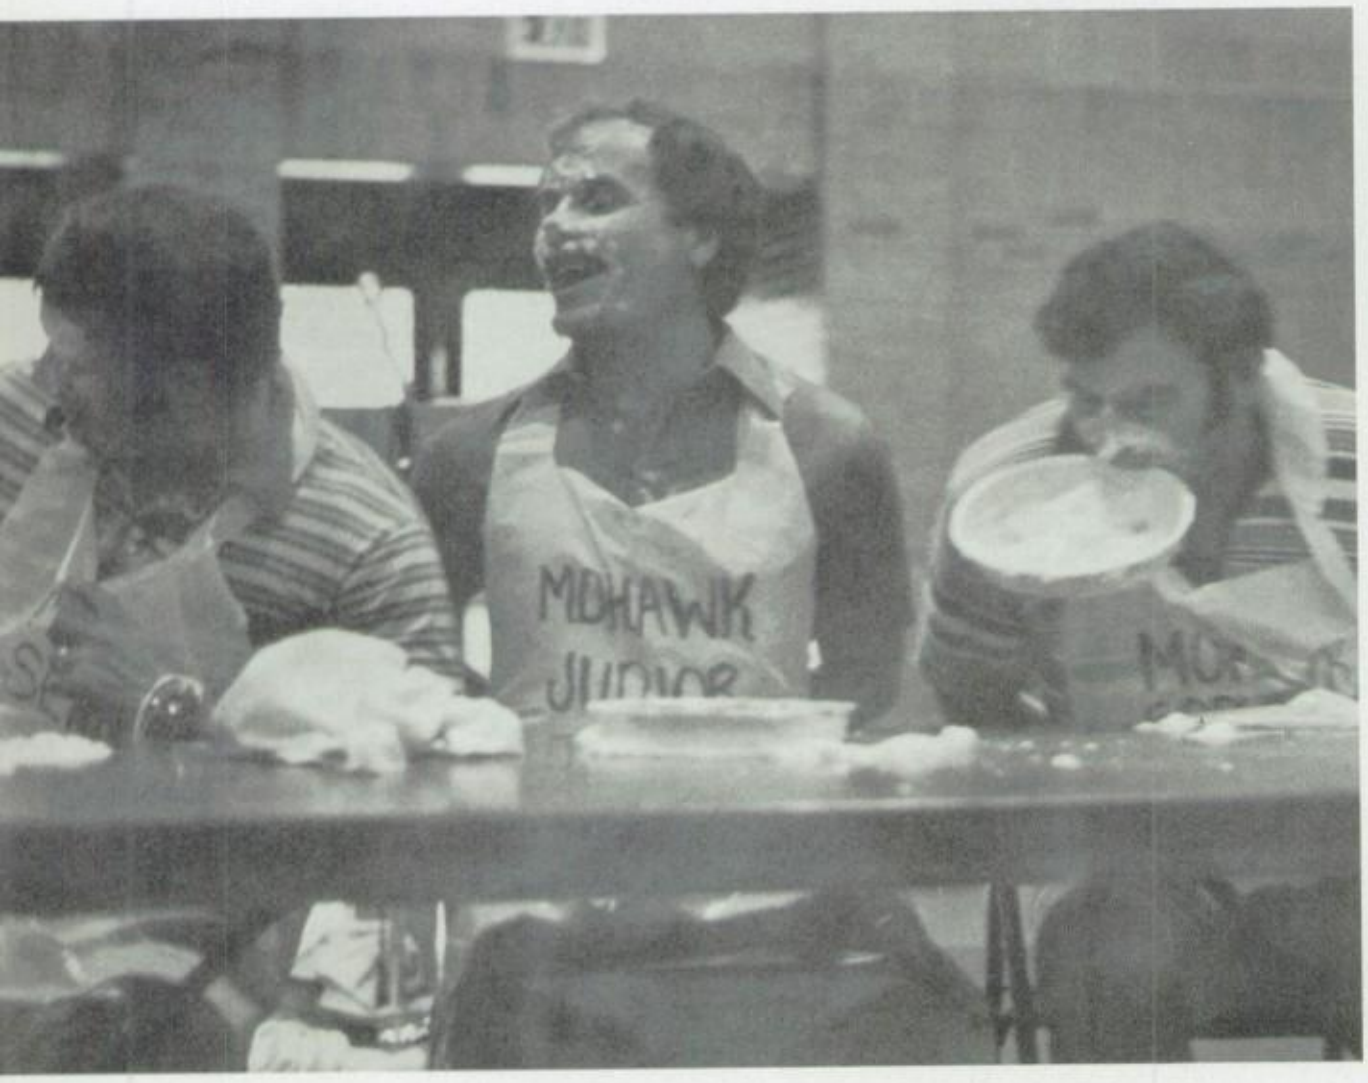
Quill and Scroll National Honor Society is an organization formed to recognize excellence in the field of journalism. Students are selected based upon their work on the yearbook and newspaper. Students must also meet national criteria and be selected by their adviser. Paul Peterson serves as adviser to the group.

RAISE A LITTLE ..... SPIRIT - Mascot Colleen Anthony performs for another packed Mohawk crowd.

READY FOR SECONDS - Scott Warren, Ed Gregory, and Gene Balk anticipate another helping after competing in the "Class of the Year" pie eating contest.



Pep Club ignites spirit

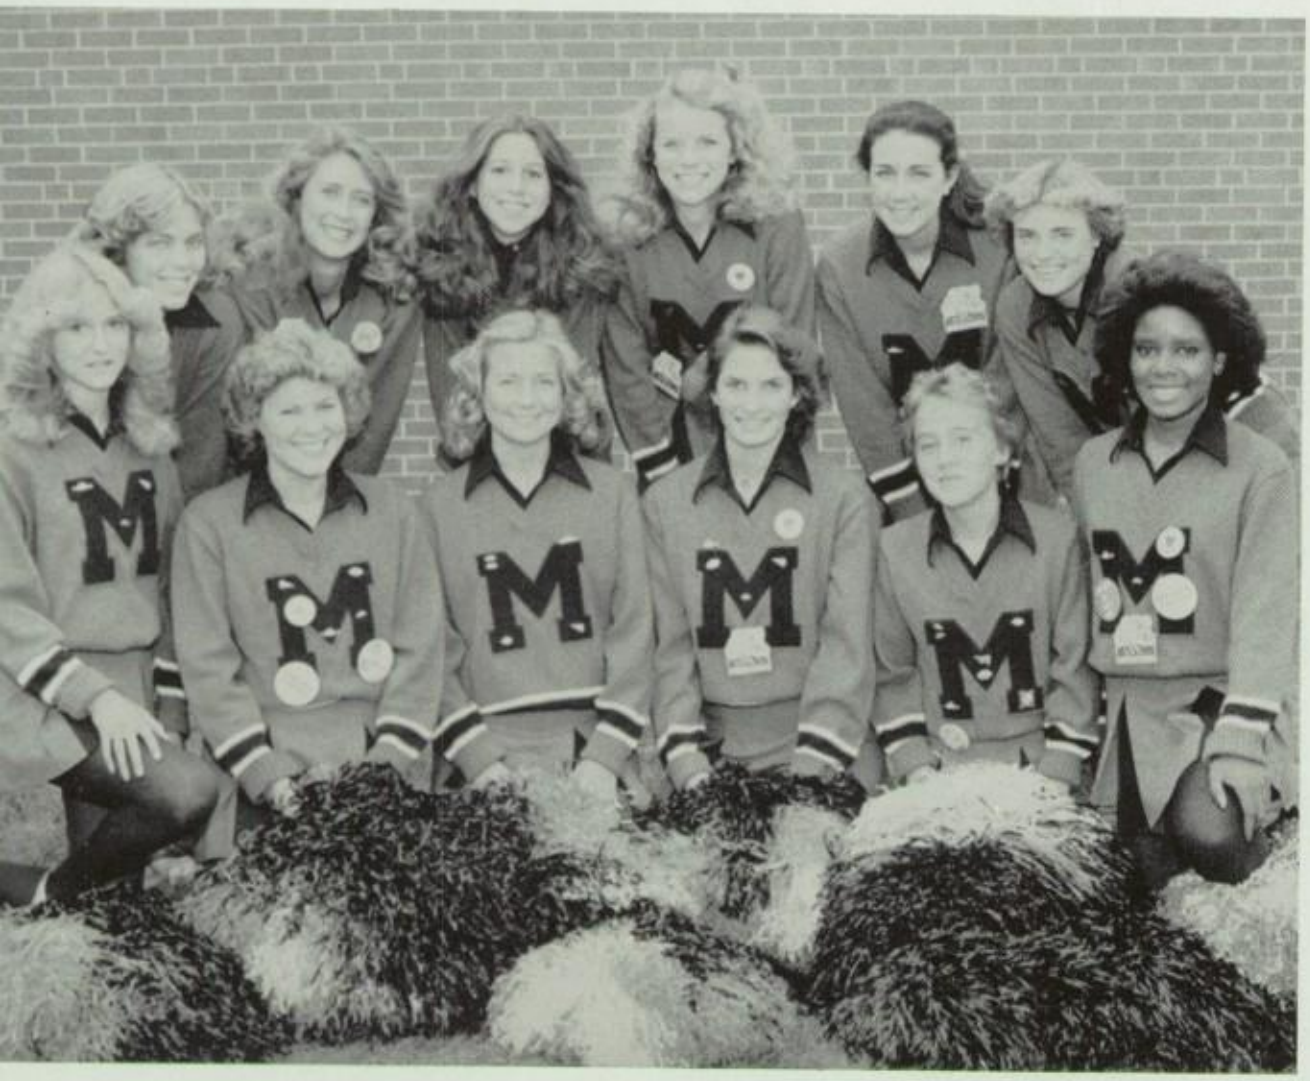
The MCHS Pep Club became a major factor in promoting spirit and enthusiasm this year. Under the direction of Mrs. Anne Manley, the pep club sponsored pep buses to out of town sports events.

Class of the year competition was initiated by the pep club and student council in one of the first pep assemblies of the year. This competition lasted the entire school year with seniors, juniors, and sophomores competing for points. Points were awarded according to attendance at sports events and participation in assemblies or other spirit-raising projects.

Homecoming week was designated "Spirit Week" by the pep club and student council. This included Pajama Day, Sweat Day, Hat Day, Western Day and Red and Black Day. A football raffle was also held to give away a football signed by the varsity players.

PEP CLUB OFFICERS - Ann Heiny, President; Andrea Pappajohn, Vice President; Ann Dorsey, Treasurer; and Janice Dahl, Secretary.

Cheerleaders make it happen



The Mohawk Cheerleaders displayed great enthusiasm and spirit once again this year. Recent changes in the system did away with separate cheerleaders for each fall sport. Instead, one squad of twelve girls cheered for football games, with two girls alternating for girls' swimming and volleyball events.

The varsity squad attended National Cheerleaders Association camp at Iowa City during summer vacation, where they brought home a spirit stick for the third year in a row. They were also awarded three superior rankings, the most any squad received, and were given the Award of Excellence.

The cheerleaders also participated in the second annual Powderpuff Football Game where they defended their championship by defeating the girls' cross country team with a score of 6-0.

Cheerleaders, Drill Team help provide spirit

The Mason City High School Winter Cheerleaders and Drill Team had another successful year. Both squads provided a tremendous amount of spirit and enthusiasm in supporting all sports.

The cheerleading program underwent major changes during the '80-'81 school year. Girls' and boys' basketball squads, previously separate, were combined into one squad. The wrestling and sophomore squads remained the same, while boys' swimming was cut to two members. Rising costs of maintenance led to the cutbacks.

Drill team was also altered somewhat. The group performed for winter sports events only, cutting their performances from the halftime football show. This allowed more time for the team to concentrate on polishing their dance routines.

Both the cheerleaders and drill team spent an uncountable number of hours on practice and perfection of their performances.

Administration prepares for change

This year the administration and board of education spent a great deal of time in preparing for a number of changes, and dealing with needed cutbacks caused by declining enrollment and state wide budget cuts. These will eat into the total number of dollars available to the district in the future.

The administration at the high school prepared to make the switch to a four year high school. This required working on a staff, space, and curriculum needs. A realignment of some staff, more space, and a curriculum designed for a four year high school all took planning.

In addition to this the administration continued to oversee the daily operation and evaluation of the school and district.

Construction also began on the new administration building located next to Roosevelt Junior High. Construction of the building should save the district money in the long run, whereas, repairs to the old building would be costly.

The shift to a middle school concept should prove challenging for all employees of the district next year.

Faculty leads the students

Whether or not the school year is a success is to a great degree determined by the faculty. The faculty is the determining factor frequently on how the day to day operation of the school progresses.

Teachers spend endless hours grading and correcting papers. Many faculty members are also extra-curricular advisors or coaches and spend an enormous amount of time with or for students.

For many students the faculty are friends, counselors, and teachers.

As students look back on their days at MCHS many will remember the good times as well as the bad. Many of these good times are directly the result of hard work put in by many members of the faculty.

Some members of the faculty are also former students and quite possibly in the future some of the students in this book will join the ranks of the teachers pictured here.

Workers help make the wheels go 'round

A school the size of MCHS requires a large staff of people who are willing to devote long hours to a successful school operation.

MCHS is lucky to have such a dedicated staff that extends beyond just the teachers and administrators.

Often times the fine jobs that the classified staff does goes unnoticed and yet without them the school would be unable to function.

Whether it be the custodian who comes early to shovel snow or the cafeteria worker who waits on students in line or secretaries in the office all these people contribute to the school day and help the school operate successfully.

Many of these people also became friends to students during their years here and will be remembered for their assistance.

Seniors provide leadership in school

Class of '81

This year's senior class provided leadership for the school in a variety of areas including athletics, music, drama, and academics. They made a path for their underclassmen to follow.

Most of these activities included students who excelled. The follies had a larger number of participants from the senior class than any other.

The class was the last class to graduate from a three year high school in Mason City, since the school will include freshmen next year.

This year's seniors also witnessed a number of changes throughout their high school days, which included more structure, bells, and a graded gym class.

A vandalism fund was also initiated this year with the remainder of the fund to be used for the prom instead of the traditional magazine sales by the junior class and other fund raising activities.

The senior class looked forward to their graduation with a variety of mixed feelings. Some people didn't want to see their high school days end, while others couldn't wait to get out.

Juniors adjust to life in the middle Class of '82

The Class of '82 started the year out by taking first place in the homecoming float competition and by doing well in the "Class of the Year" Contest. Juniors spent the transitional year between being a sophomore and senior by doing such things as participating in self appraisal and planning, taking ACT and SAT tests for college, and generally trying to determine what route to take in choosing their spot in the world. This junior class is unique in that it will be the first class to graduate from the present building with four grades. Next year the juniors will be expected to set an example for not only two classes but three. The junior year for many students in this class was one that was marked by many new experiences like getting a driver's license.

Sophomores get accustomed to high school life

Class of '83

For the sophomores, this year was a busy one, as many participated in different activities. The sophomore class was active in the areas of drama, art, and music. They also filled many spots in sports, student council, and a variety of clubs. The sophomores were an essential element in high school life. A great sense of anticipation filled the halls as the sophomores watched the last year of the three grade high school pass. Next year, the incoming sophomores will see the end of harassment traditionally given to them by upperclassmen. This burden will fall upon the incoming freshmen class. The sophomores will willingly take on the tradition of passing on the information pertaining to the third-floor pool, the student lounge, and the elevator to incoming underclassmen.

He could be learning the business.

Kids have energy and brains to burn. They get to an age when they're beyond toys and games. They get caught up in real things, when someone gives them a chance.

That's what Junior Achievement is all about. Mini-companies formed, run and staffed by kids. Kids who dream up products and product applications the world can really use.

LOF is always looking forward. To the tomorrows that will require new products and new people to make and market them.

Year ends with mixed emotions . . .

Just as the halls finally became familiar to the new sophomores, the seniors became restless as they waited for their graduation. All students felt the summer days calling them back outside.

Students recalled the events of the year. The election of the new president and the freeing of the hostages in Iran stood out as the most important political events of the year. The successes in sports and anxious expectations of the four year high school were also felt through the halls of the school.

While students complained about the hard classes and the strenuous activities, they usually found time to have some fun.

Students will find high school memories and aquaintances difficult to forget.

MONDAY BLUES-Liesa Naylon has a difficult time letting a smile show on Monday.

MIGRAINE IN THE MAKING- Colleen Mahoney takes a break in the library in effort to make it through the day.

CURIOSITY KILLS THE . . . RAT- Jeff Behr and Chris Herman show the photographer their next victim . . . the rat.

SMILE . . . YOU'RE ON CANDID CAMERA-
Doug Balek gets a shot of his own medicine.

STIR CRAZY-Tom Corley and Kent Porter take a minute to let their emotions show.

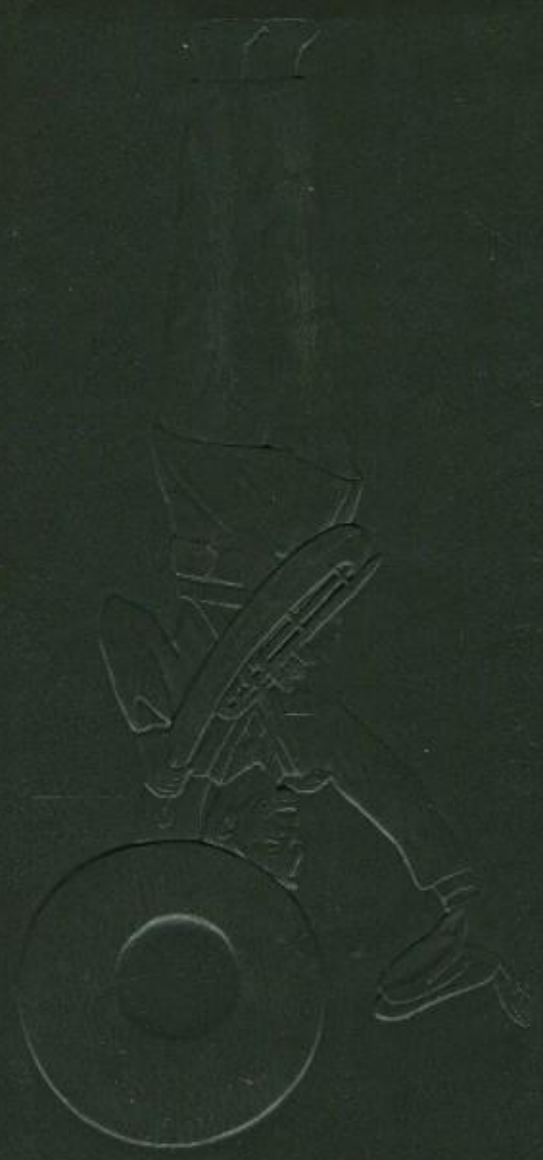
. . . as students say good-bye

Acknowledgments

The staff of this year's Masonian would like to thank all of the people who helped make this book possible including; the staff of the Globe-Gazette for helping with photos, Mueller's Photography, Art Reynold's Photography, Reflections by Mr. G. Gerard Photography, Ken Gutterman Photography, and all the advertisers who helped fund the book.

The staff would also like to thank the students, faculty, and administration for their help and inspriation.

"COMMON" SIGNS-Many signs decorate the halls, while boosting school spirit.

SEE YA LATER, GUYS!-Sue Wilson and Anne Groth wave good-bye on their way out of a basketball game.


SENIOR BLUES-Mike Hoy takes a moment to think about his ending school days.
